Dave,

To the guy a good friend of mine was very jealous of, know who I mean? And the guy many people thought I was going around with, remember? And the guy people have told me I should go around with because we get along so well. I don't think you know who told me that but I'll give you a BIG clue, you're locker partner I believe, as a matter of fact, I really did like you this year. No matter what ever happens between us though, I will always consider you a great friend, and you really have been to me. There are many things I will never forget. For instance all the times in Croghans room when you played doctor to me. Square Dancing in P.E. and of course your telephone in Shoberts room, they were all loads of fun. But all those good times are a past now. I just hope you don't forget all the good times we have had, I know I won't. There is something I really have to thank you for and I really don't know how I can thank you enough. That's all the times you have helped me with Craig, when you walked down the hall with me by that certain spot, and when you tried to make me feel better when we broke up. You did a good job of making me feel better. Just knowing you were there and helping me and listening to me, did more than you can imagine! You helped me even when you didn't know there was something wrong. I guess it's just your great looks and fantastic personality. I know when I liked you, I shouldn't have, maybe, because you deserve the best of girls ever! I know you'll be going to a lot of parties this summer and I want you to have a good time, just don't get in any trouble, okay? Be sure if you go on any vacations send me a postcard. I know someday the right girl will come along and just remember when you do get married, I'll be thinking about you and wishing you two the best of luck, love and happiness in the world! You really are one of the best friends I have. I hate to think the school year is almost over, it makes me want to cry, you were one of the ones who made the year so fantastic for me. At least I hope that just because this year is ending, it doesn't mean we won't be good friends any more, and we won't see each other

If you ever need a favor, I'll be glad at any time to try at least to help you out the best I can. This summer sometime I want to have a swim party and you'll be invited. If you never do get invited it will only be because I didn't have it. Otherwise you'll be sure to know about it.

Best of luck in everything you ever do.

A THIRTEENTH FANTASY

Friday, November 13, was the date of the "Thirteenth Fantasy." Megaphone Club sponsored this dance, which was decorated with Peter Max-style art, posters, and flowers. Those who attended danced to the music of "Crystal Garden."

1,2 - 1,2,3 - 1,2,3,4 - LET'S GO!

This year the yell-leaders and song-girls prepared various noon-time rallies in order to promote school spirit. Each rally consisted of routines and skits which demonstrated such themes as: "Roll Over the Titans" and "Stomp the Falcons."

QUEEN'S

Aldina Ramos, a senior, received the title of Miss Southern Belle of 1971 on October 23, 1970. Pam Kurrels, Miss Southern Belle of 1970, was on hand to crown the new Queen.

Dressed in the traditional costume of the Old South, Aldina appeared at all the games to cheer the Rebels on to victory.

Below, she expressed her surprise while her escort, George Kiessling, gave her warm congratulations.

All who attended the Coronation Ball enjoyed it, along with dancing to the music of the Loading Zone.

CORONATION

Pauline Russo, Student Body Vice-President, planned and worked diligently to make the Queen's Coronation a success. John Gullak, Student Body President, presented Pauline with a corsage of orchids for her work.

The newly crowned queen and John Gullak, danced the traditional "first dance." The 1971 queen candidates are pictured below.

The queen candidates were presented to the student body during a lunch-time rally in the boys' gym. With an entertaining skit, each club introduced its queen candidate.

THE QUEEN AND HER ATTENDANTS

Aldina Ramos was crowned Miss Student Body for 1971. With this title she acted as Miss Southern Belle and appeared at all the games dressed in the traditional costume. She was escorted by George Kiessling, and was sponsored by Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Marvajeane Silva, a member of the class of '71, received the title of first attendant. Larry Rose was her escort. She represented Boys' League.

Junior, Sue Richie, was the candidate from Block SL. She was chosen as second attendant. John Garcia escorted her to the dance.

The story of an inexperienced teacher in a problem-filled school was the theme of this year's fall play. After many hours of difficult rehearsal, the students, under the direction of Mr. Polzin, gave a very laudable performance.

A SOUTHERN PAIR

At games and other activities, Aldina Ramos, Miss Southern Belle of 1971, was escorted, throughout the year, by Colonel Reb, Larry Rose. These school mascots used their outstanding spirit-rousing qualities to promote spirit and participation among the crowds.

A NEW THING GOING

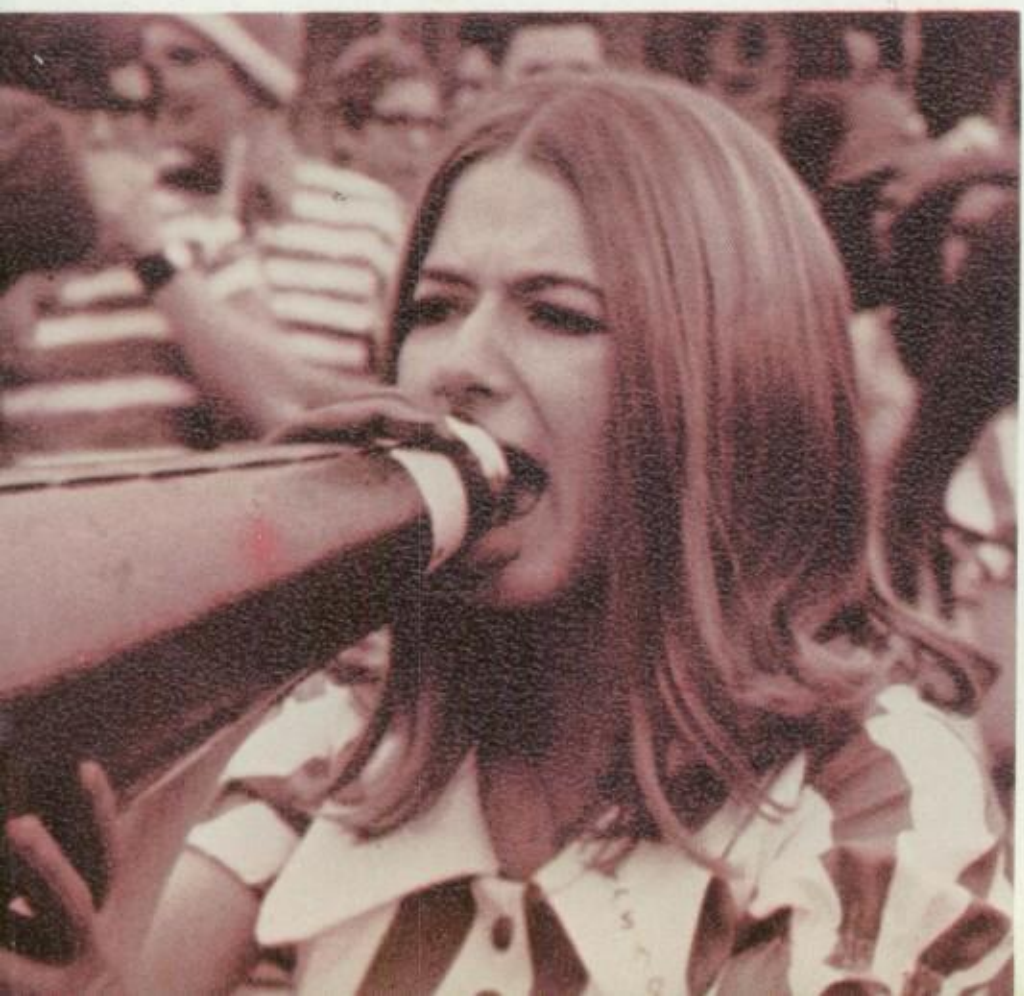

Promoting spirit along with the yell leaders and song girls were the SL letter girls and boy yell leaders.

FRESHMEN ARMY MARCHES ON

SLZ CAMPUS

The Freshman army launched its spirit efforts with a dazzling show of army tactics. The green-clad soldiers entwined marching formations with spirit displays as they captured the San Lorenzo campus with the "Spirit of '74."

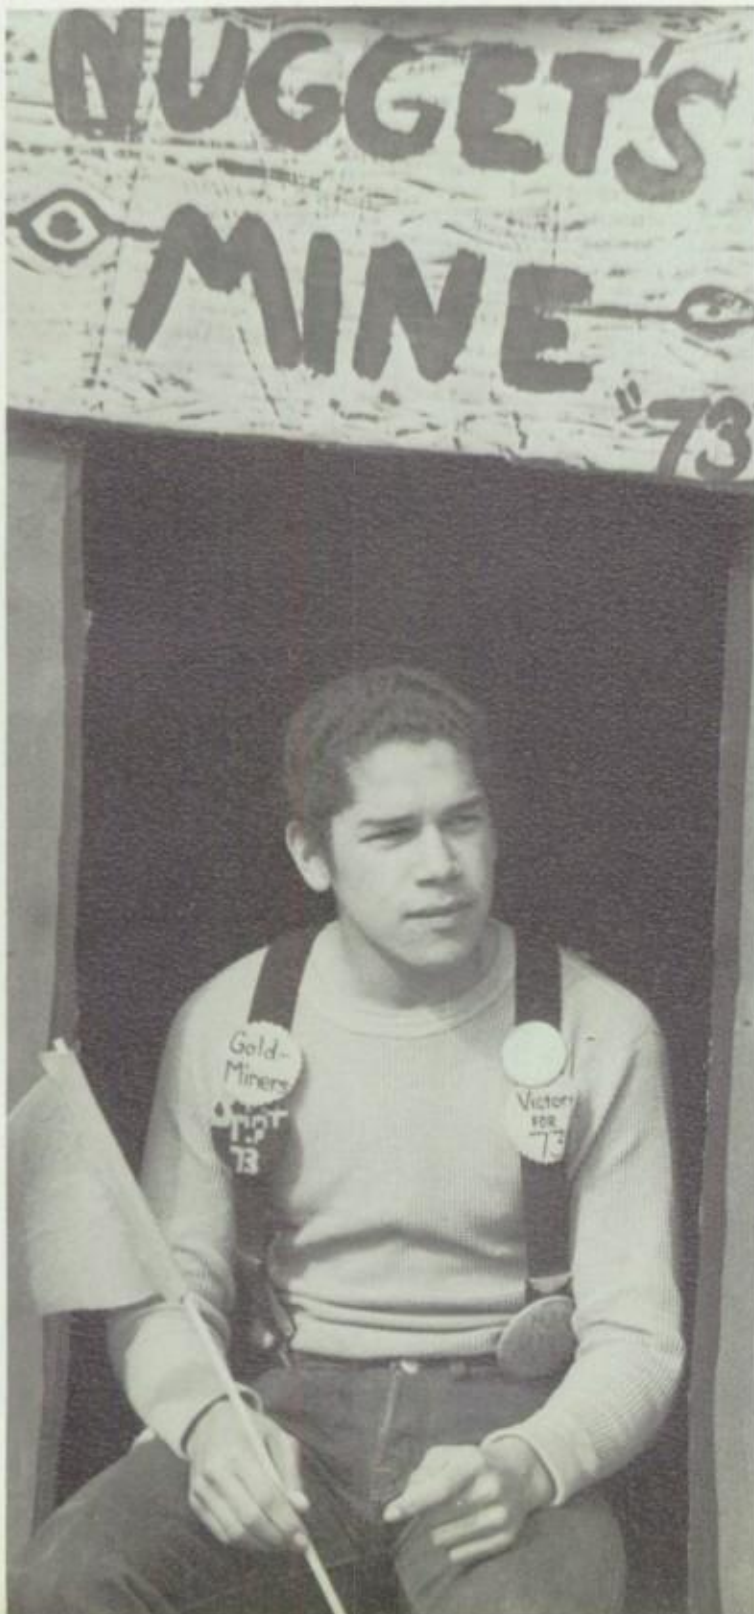

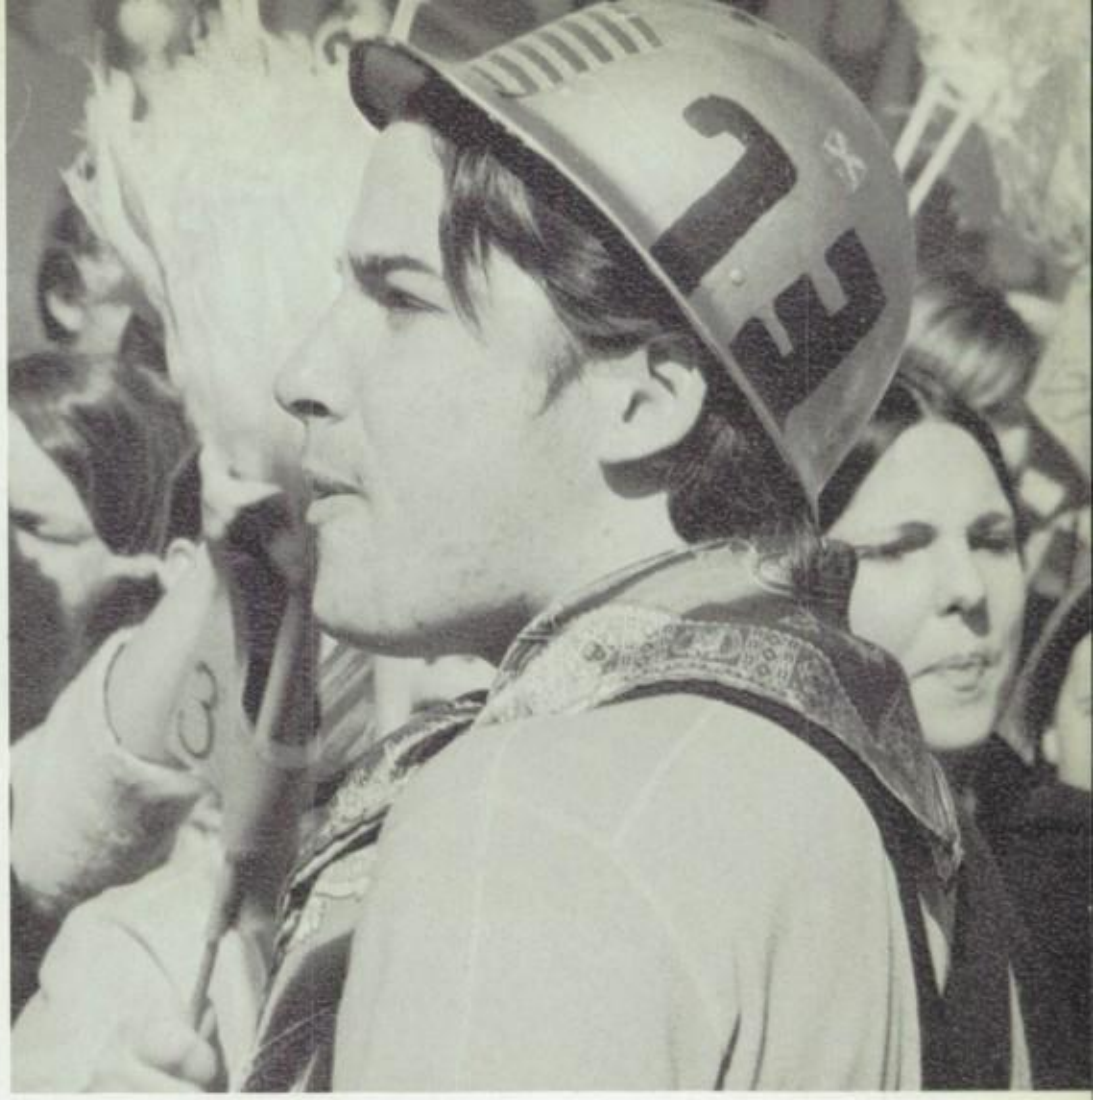

The Army, led by its able leaders, showed the upper-classmen what was needed to defeat the mighty Spartans who had marched on San Lorenzo. Spirited yelling and enthusiasm were all combined to defeat the Spartans, and the Freshman Army went marching on.

Kim Peck, Freshman class president, gains experience in class organization.

RIGHT ON SOPHOMORES !

The Sophomore Gold Miners' enthusiasm and organization were the means of striking it rich with spirit. Their cheerleaders led them to victory by uniting the efforts of the Class of '73. They relived history in their skit as they hunted for the golden gift of spirit.

JUNIOR SPIRIT BREAK

The Junior Jailbirds broke out with spirit during the week of February 15. In their skit, the Pink Panther led the spirited juniors to victory over the Castro Valley Spartans by foiling the Spartan plot to hold the mighty Rebels prisoners.

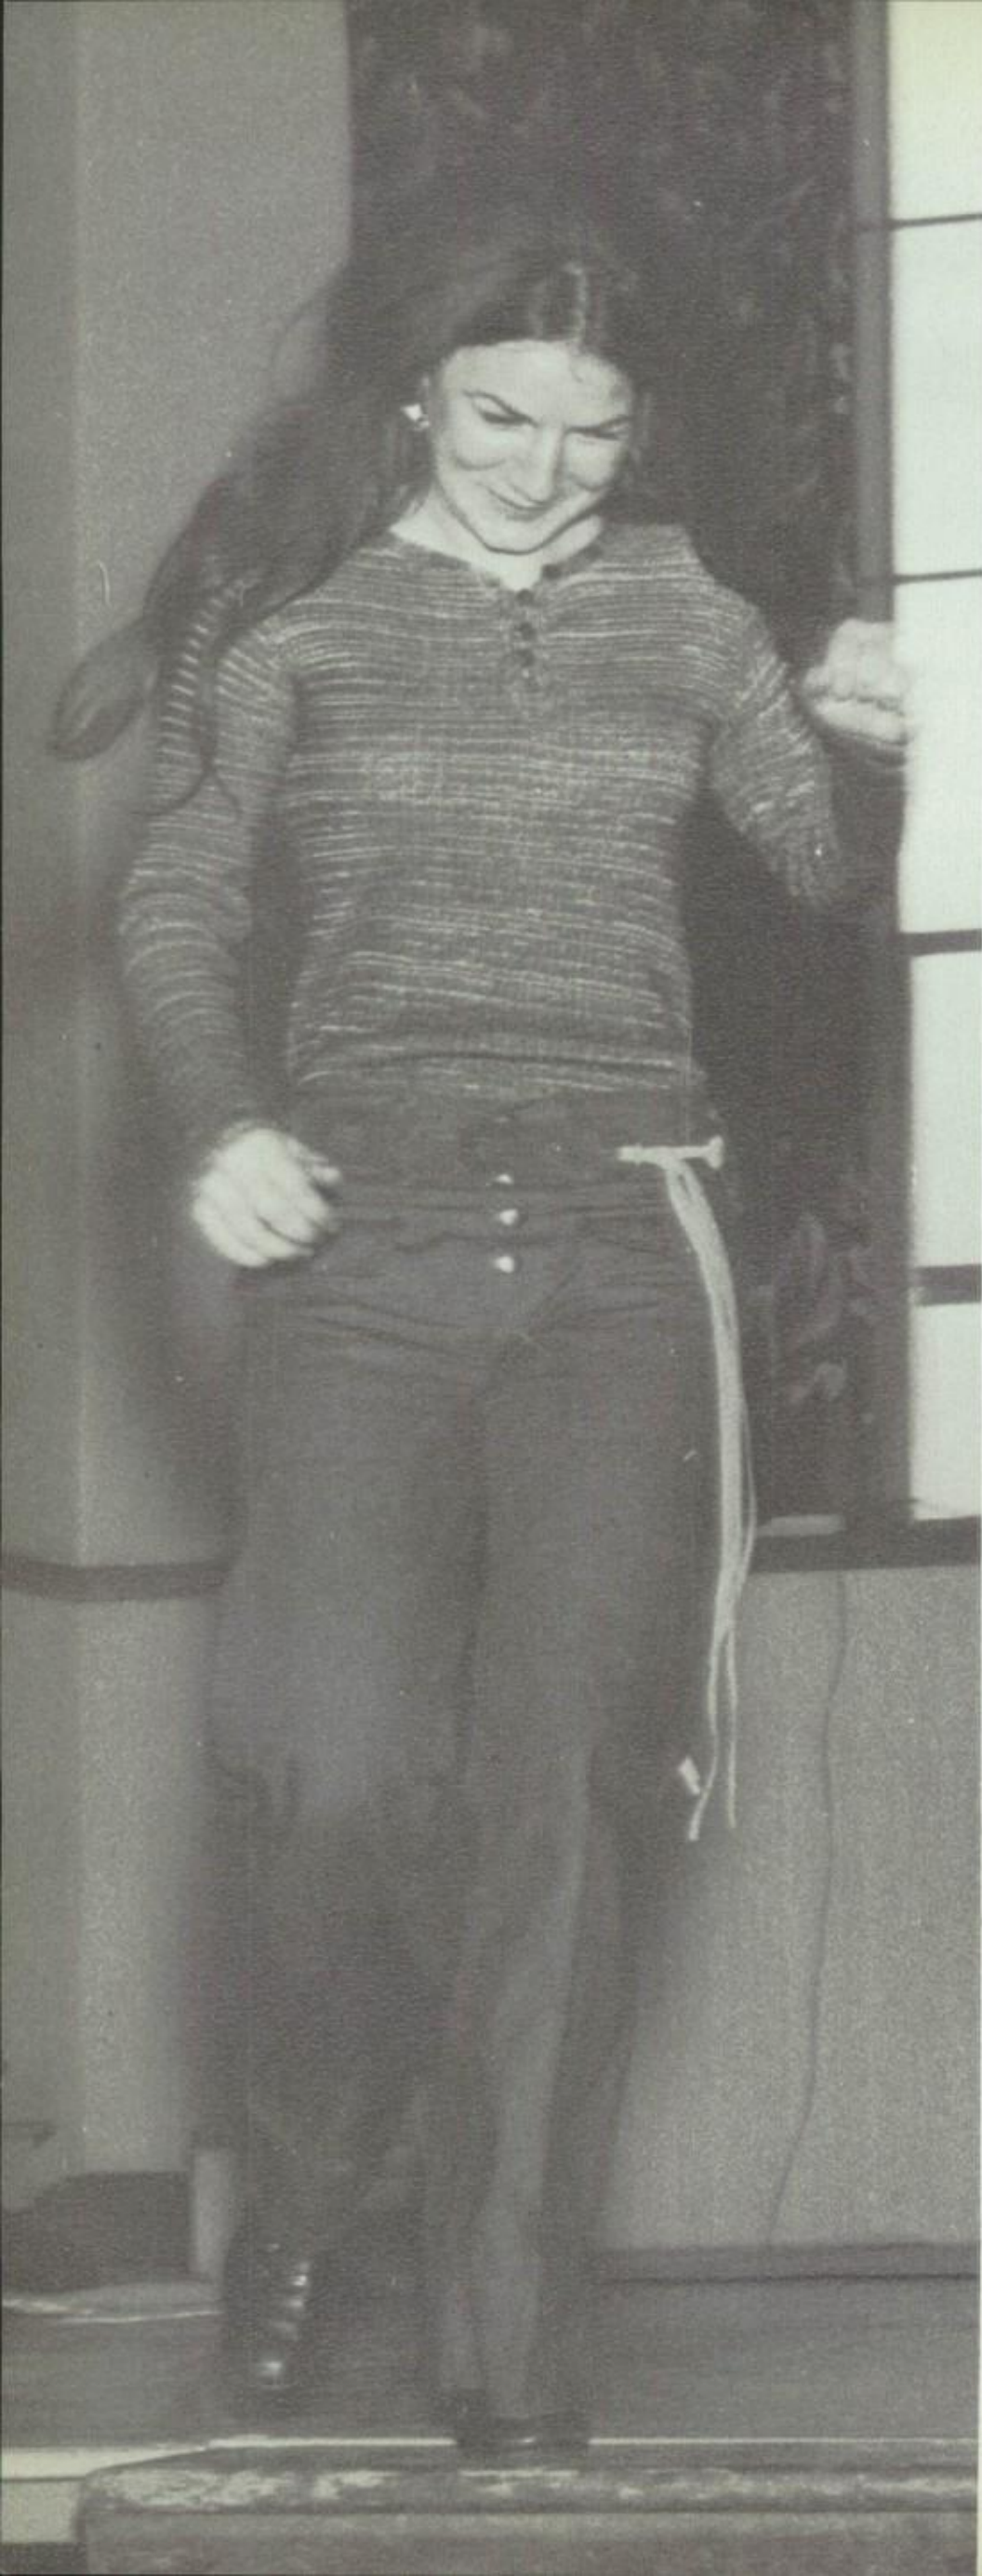

SENIOR SHOWDOWN

Seniors gained four trophies in the spirit week contest. The class, truly unified in competition, showed tremendous spirit and organization. Their theme, "Senior Showdown," was brought to life in the town, Orange Springs. Characters like Hi Ho Orange-O and the Lone Orange brought the Terrible Sheriff Spartan to justice so that spirit could reign in the town. All the members of the class participated in making a fine showing for the Senior class of 1971.

GOING . . .

GOING . . . GONE !!!

The Senior Servants of 1971 were auctioned off on Wednesday, March 10. This year all bidding records were broken, first by a winning bid of $59.00 from Dale Shimasaki for Gary Ruff. That record was then broken by Larry Rose and Co. who paid $86.00 for Aldina Ramos. Friday, March 12, the honored seniors reported to their masters to be dressed and to carry out the tasks assigned by their masters. The servants also competed in noontime activities which included a tricycle race and an orange pass. Noontime competition was interrupted by rain, but the spirits of the servants were not dampened.

A TIME FOR US

Exquisite decorations enhanced the Boys' Gym to create the setting for the Junior Prom, "A Time for Us," held on Friday, March 19th. Debbie Murchison, chairman of the Junior Prom, along with her ambitious committee made the prom one not to be forgotten. (Below) Randy Bundy and his date, Debbie Murchison, enjoyed the music provided by "Marin."

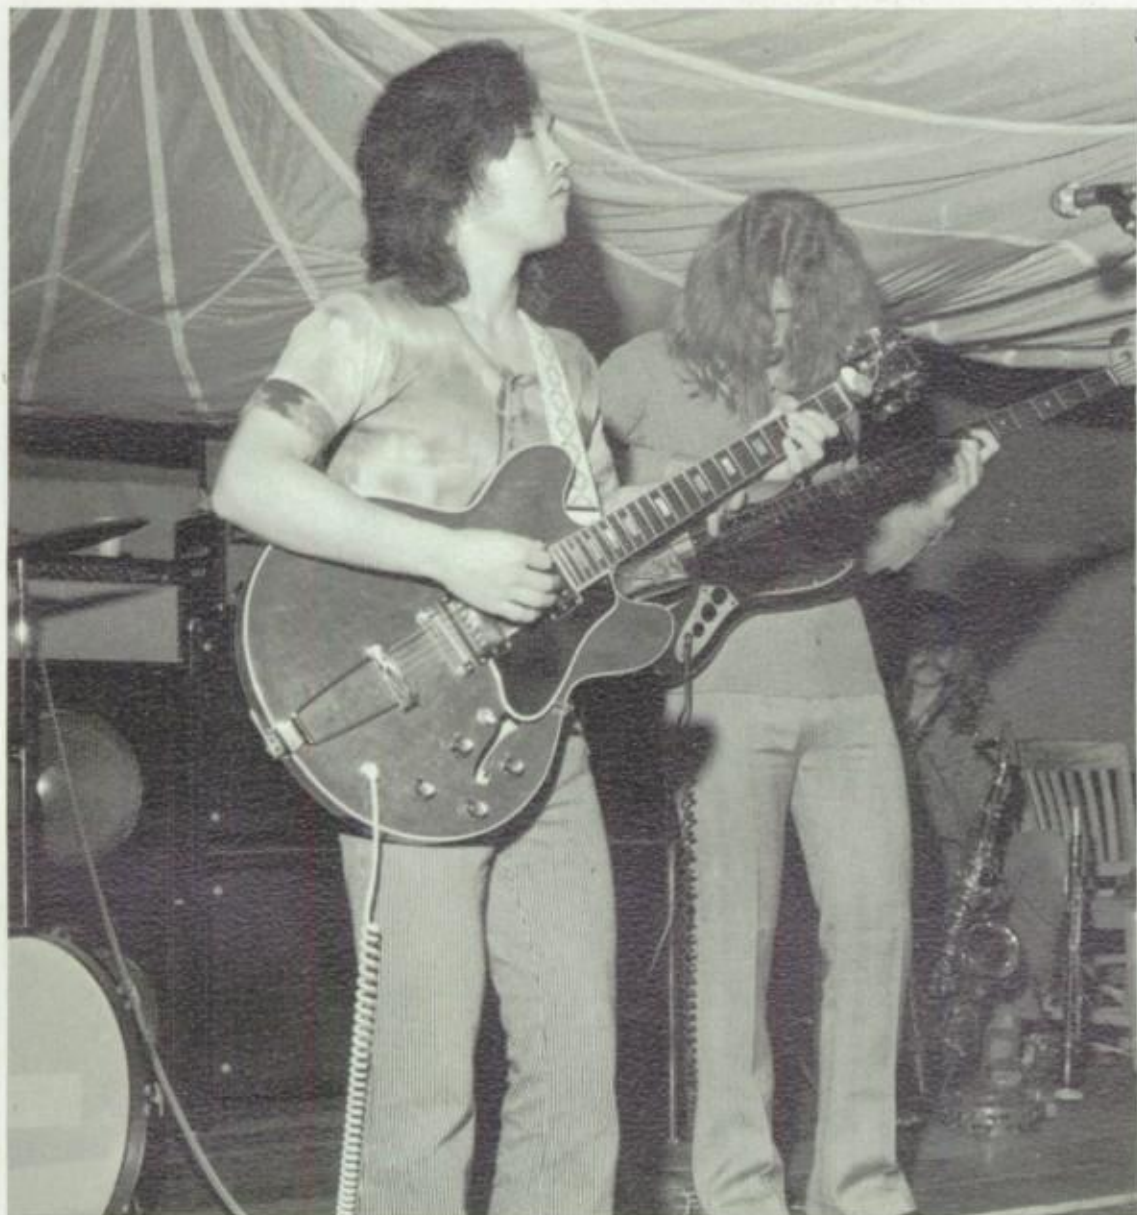

Throughout the evening, couples danced to the music of "Marin." Calvin Hunter, a 1970 San Lorenzo graduate, provided additional entertainment with Mr. Shoots as his accompanist.

Toward the end of the evening, thanks were given to all who contributed their time and efforts to making the prom a success. Gifts of appreciation were presented to Junior Class Advisors, Mr. Creed and Mr. Shoots, and to Mrs. Serrano for efforts in providing the refreshments.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

1971 MUSICAL

The musical production, "The Sound of Music," was superbly directed by Mr. Polzin with assistant directors Evelyn Kuehl, Robin Eckert, and Terry Melbourne. The musical accompaniment, supervised by Mr. West, was done with excitement and enthusiasm. The cast of characters portrayed the lives of the Trapp Family Singers.

EVERYBODY'S DOIN' IT

Female grease monkeys? Well, yes. This year brought many new and practical changes to San Lorenzo High. Our industrial arts program was expanded to allow girls to participate in classes.

Another innovation was the Universal Gym which was purchased with money from the Boosters' Club and from various activities such as a Boys' P.E. candy sale and a raffle. Both boys and girls were able to enjoy the benefits derived from the Universal Gym.

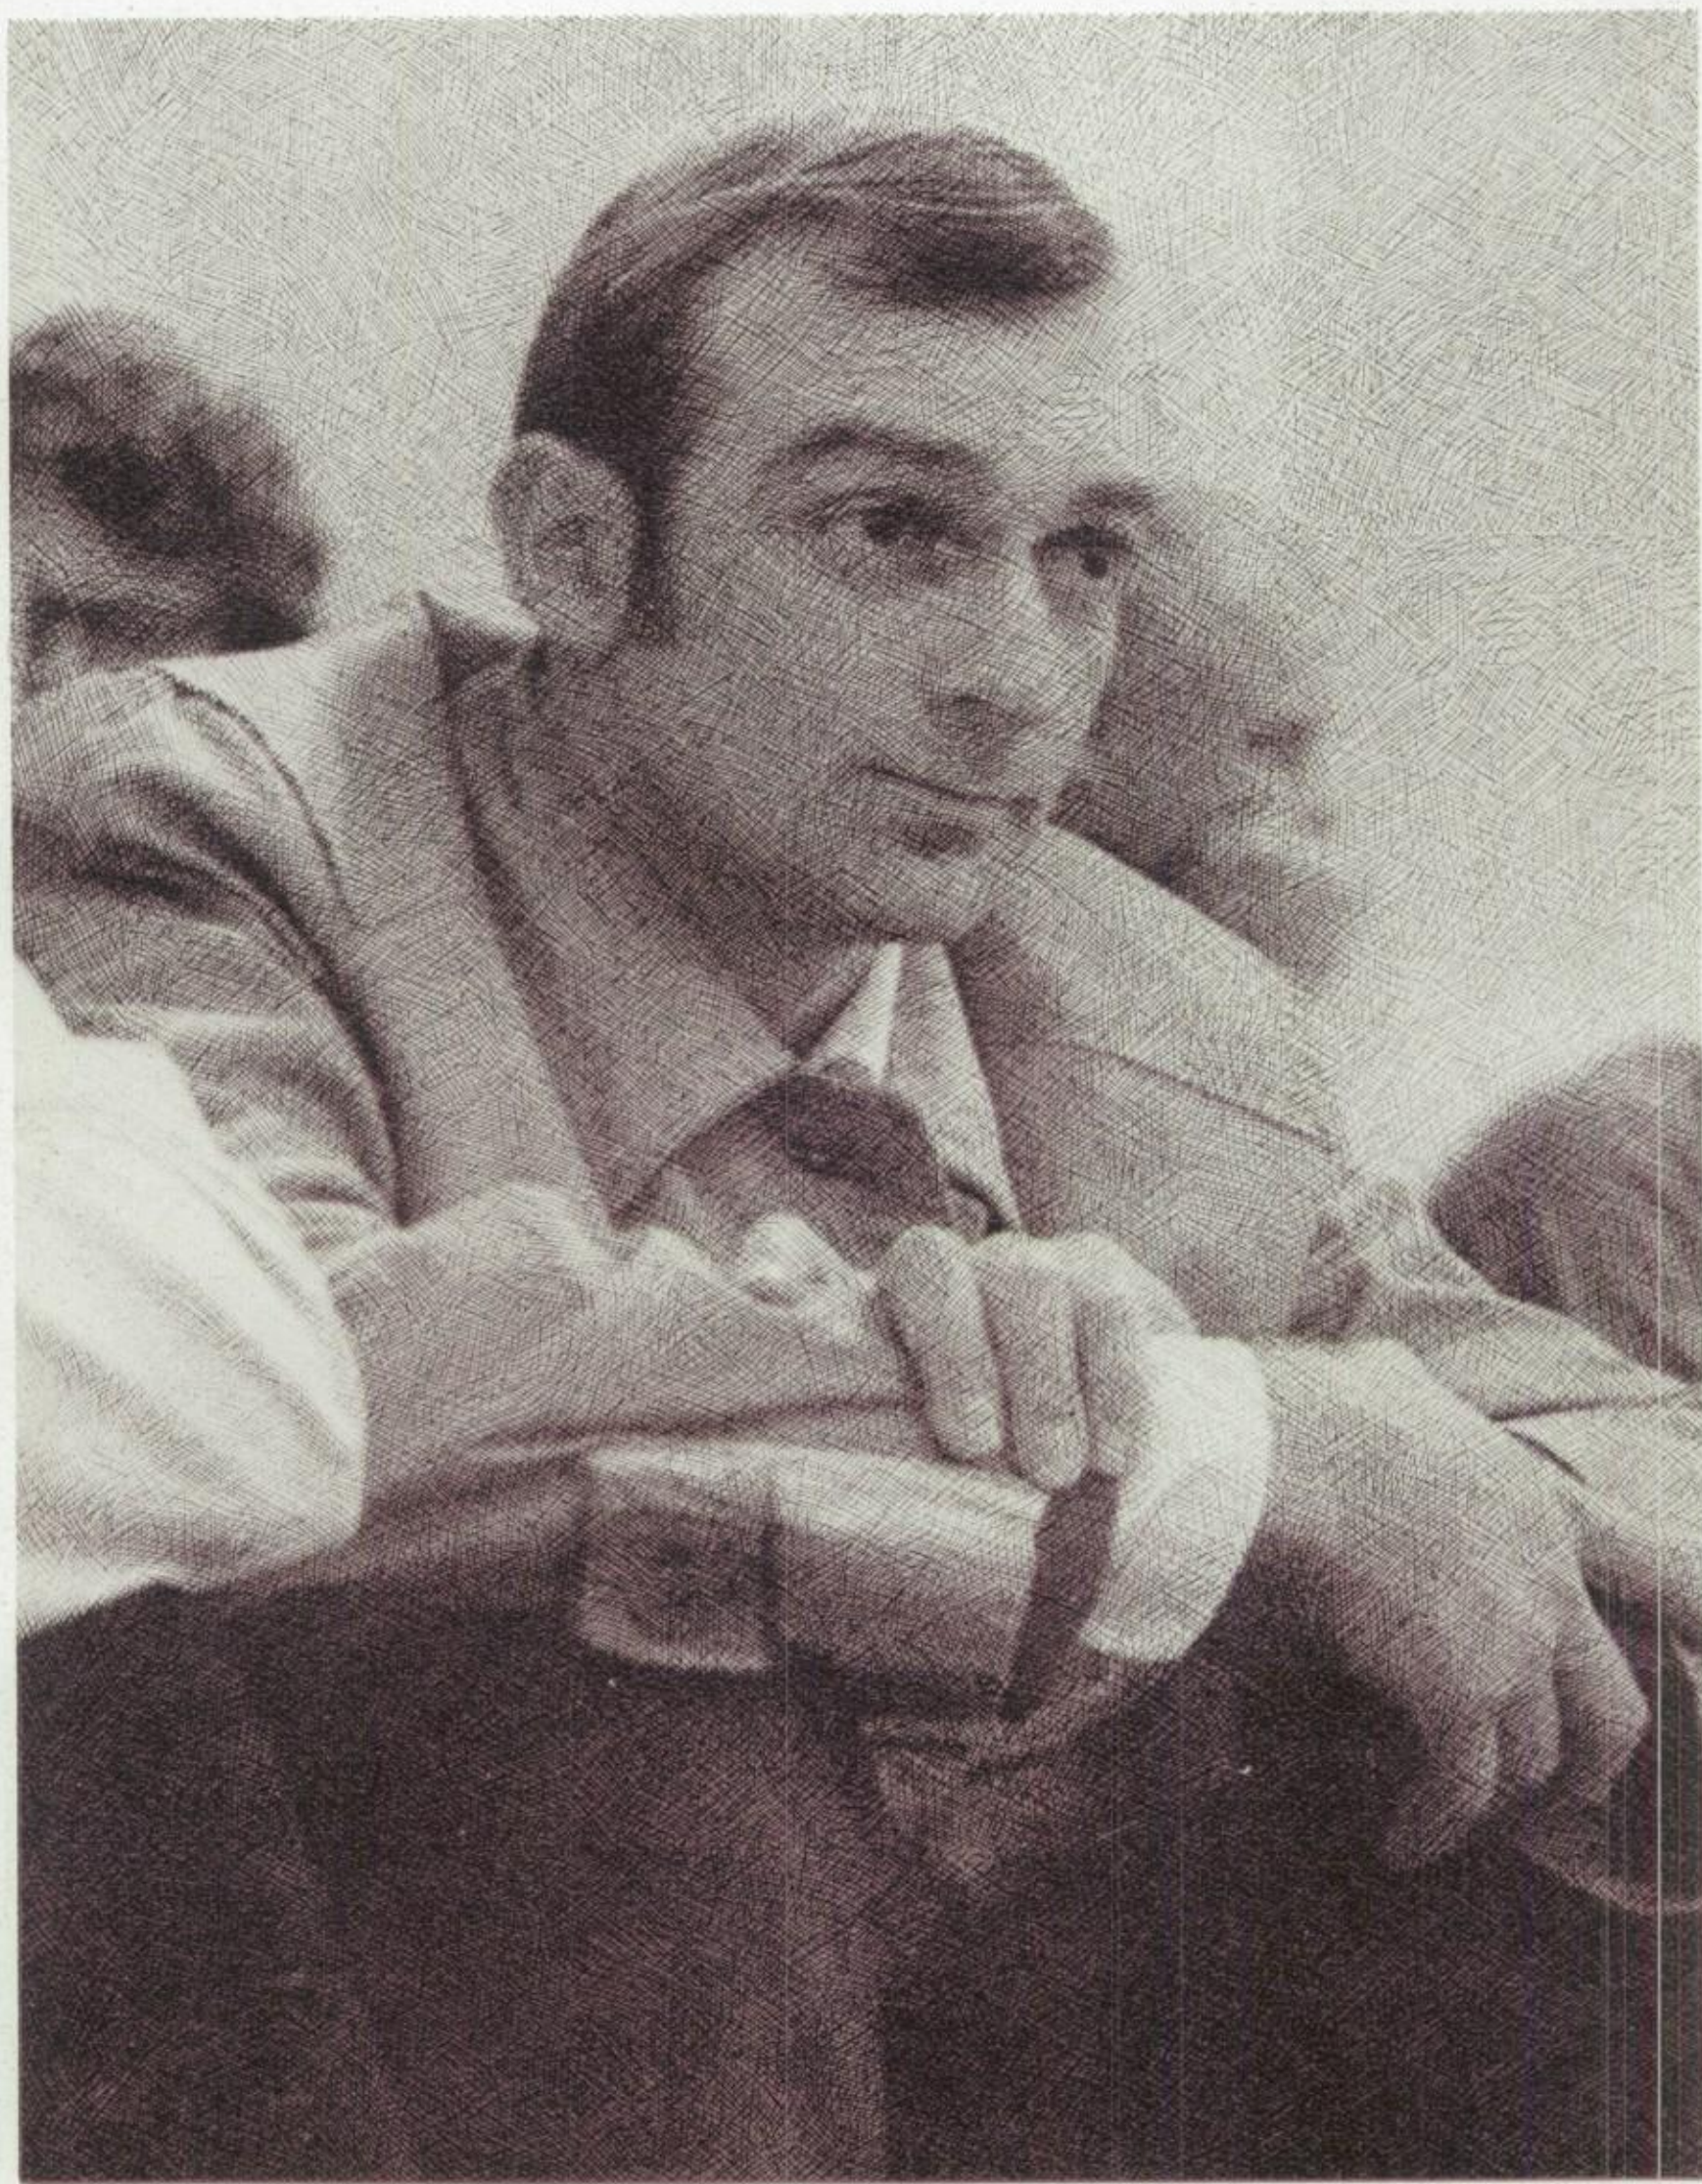

The pictures on this page represent only a few of the changes which took place at S.L.H.S. this year.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

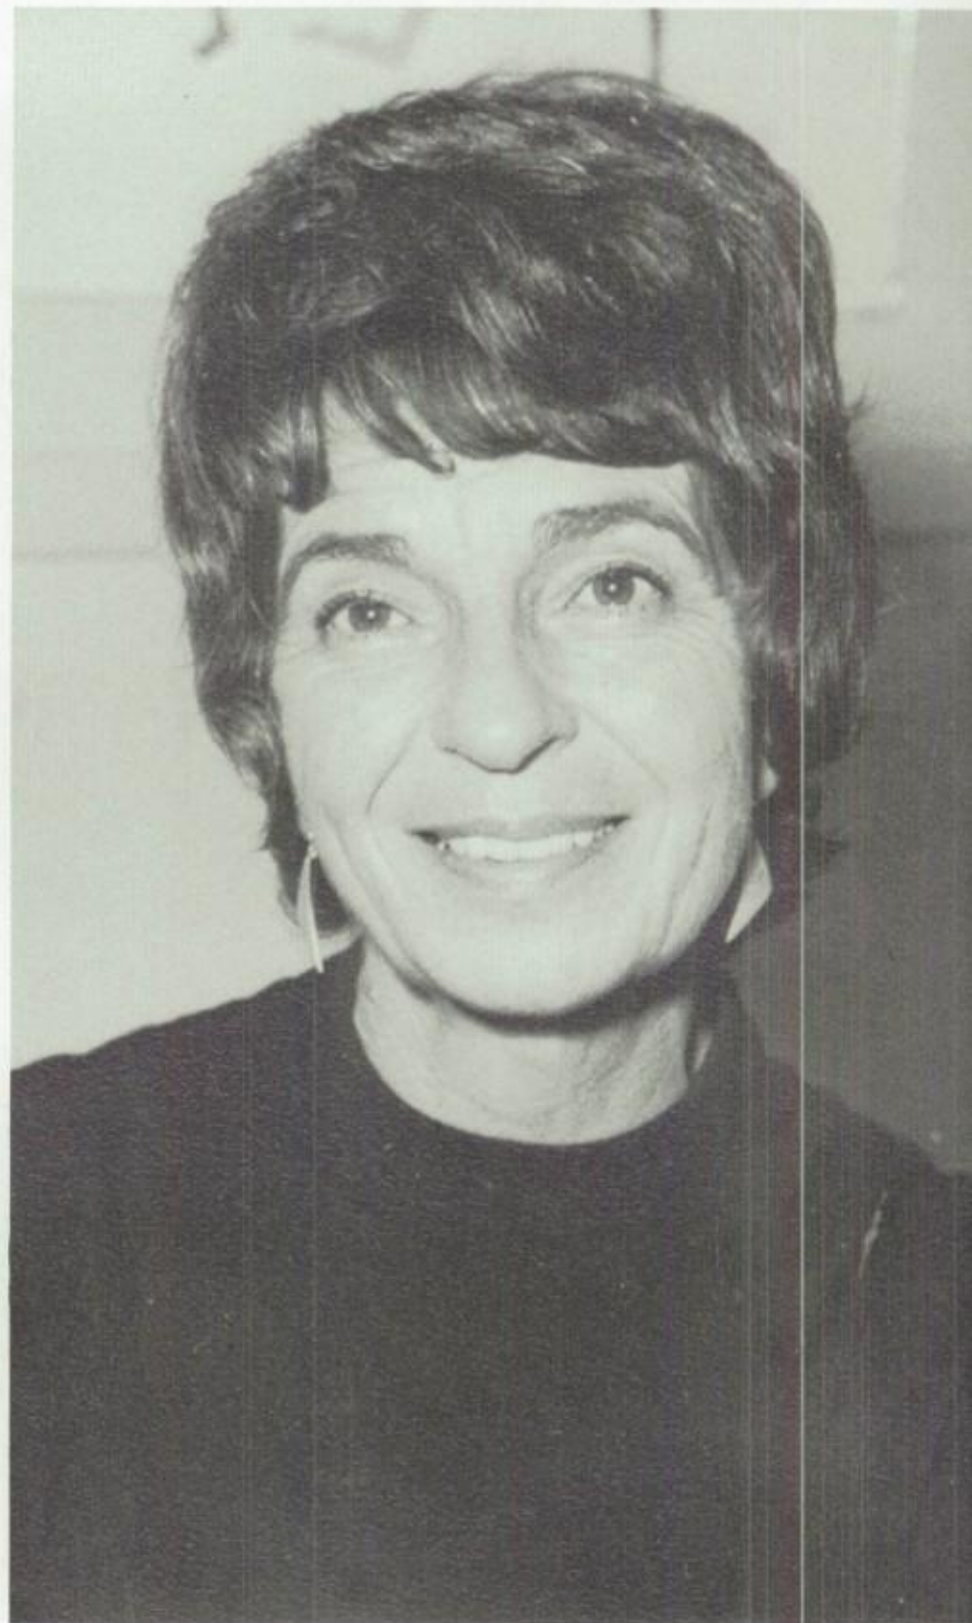

Our high school is a part of the rapid change which society is experiencing. The efforts of students to exert a real influence on the nature and future of their high school lives have been supported and encouraged by some and recognized by all.

This year's seniors and many other students are noted for their leadership and success in continuously improving student government in the areas of responsibility, effectiveness, and communication with students, staff, and community.

I trust that our students' good work has resulted in their experiencing the satisfaction and enjoyment of progress and in their establishing the pleasure of many personal relationships.

-Dr. David M. Snider-

ORCHESTRA AND BAND

Advanced band and orchestra are directed by Mr. Jack Williamson (right). Students in these classes donate their talents and time to numerous school events each year. Perhaps as much as any other group, they overcome the requirements of public performance through weeks of individual and cooperative effort. They perform more than other average high school music groups and maintain high standards of achievement. Our student body should be proud of them.

Two band members concentrate on playing the correct notes.

CLUBS EMPHASIZE INVOLVEMENT

The International Brotherhood Club, above, was a new club this year. Their main purposes were to familiarize their members with the different customs of other countries and to promote brotherhood.

At right are the members of Thespian Troupe 3073. These are the people who enjoyed drama and who took part in the plays at San Lorenzo.

At left are pictured the members of Students for Peace. As the name indicates, these students were concerned with promoting universal peace. During the year, they sponsored a dance with the profits going to the Hayward Switchboard.

The Controversial Issues Club (below) was on its fourth year at San Lorenzo. They gathered to discuss the problems in the world and to take part in debates on controversial issues.

Ecology Club was one of the largest clubs at San Lorenzo. They sponsored clean-ups and went on various field trips. They also set up a recycling center. They are pictured above, at the pond which, for the beautification of San Lorenzo, they constructed in the garden.

Future Business Leaders of America, (right) encouraged students who took business courses to join in activities which would help them further their knowledge of business.

CLUBS PROMOTE PARTICIPATION

Medical Careers Club was an organization for those who were interested in medicine. At left, (standing) Delcea Rauscher, president, and Louie Lois; (seated) Kathy Jaramillo, and September Wallace.

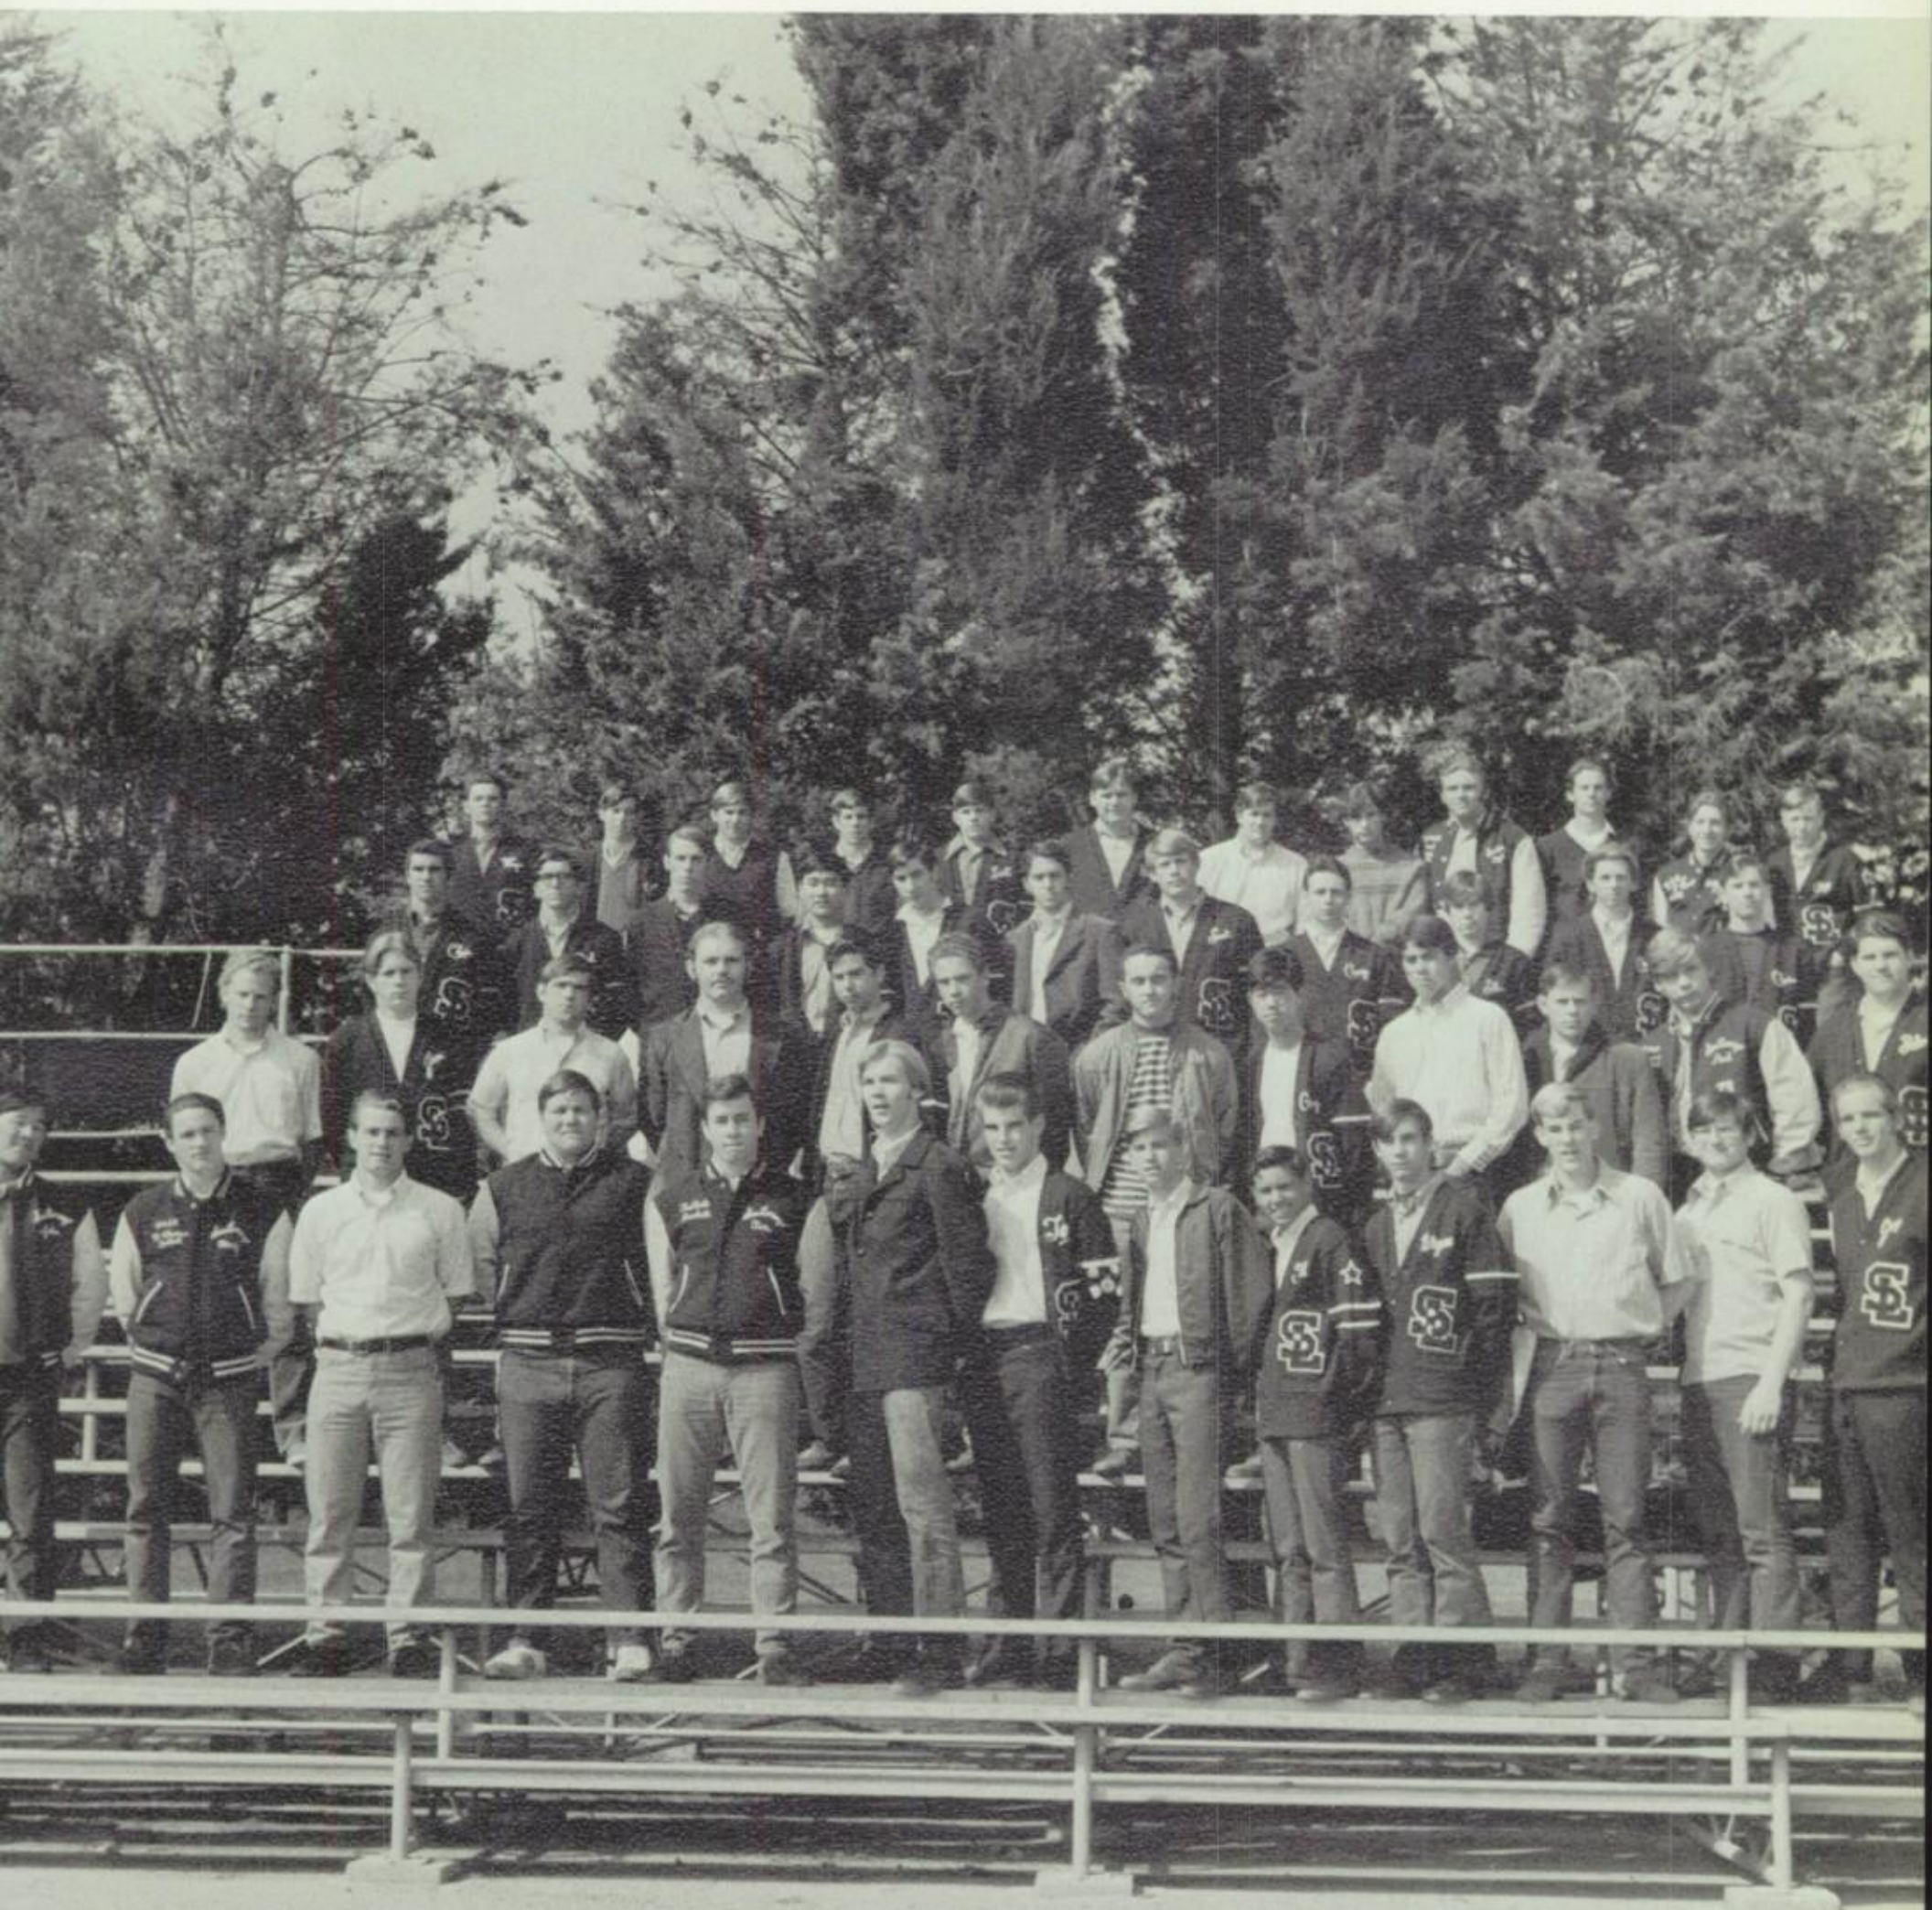

Fellowship of Christian Athletes (below) was a club which helped to promote Christianity among the athletes at San Lorenzo. The members included George Kiessling, Dan Jackson, Chris Lamb, Doug McNally, Scott Clark, Hal Doell, Wayne Bogart, Milton Janetos, Tuck Mayes, Julian Melendres, Rich Vasser, and John Garcia.

THE VARSITY LETTERMEN OF BLOCK SL

Block SL is one of the largest clubs on the Rebel Campus. Among their many activities this year was the sponsoring of a horror film festival on Halloween, and a blanket toss at a basketball game during Christmas. The money from the blanket toss was donated to charity. At right the officers of Block SL are pictured: Lee Wilcox, Treasurer; Garry Candland, Secretary; George Kiessling, Vice President; Gary Ruff, Co-President; and John Garcia, President.

LETTERMEN OF BLOCK SL

SPORTS CLUBS ARE ACTIVE

Ski Club has been in existence for two years. This year they sponsored a very successful car wash which helped to pay for their annual weekend ski trip. The officers, right, were Jim McGrail, Dennis Forsberg, and Geoff Wilson, president; SEATED: Peggy Muldowney and Carlise Laster.

The Megaphone Club, below, tries to promote spirit at all school activities. Girls who wish to try-out for cheerleader or song girl must have active membership records. Seated in the first row are the officers; Judy Kendrick, Debbie Davis, Claire Arnerich, Vickie Davis, Ginny Charles, and Debbie Murchison, president.

The purpose of Wrestling Club is to promote more student interest in wrestling. Above, STANDING: Becky Haffer, Karen Brower, Louise Valech, Jocelyn Macstas, Delcea Rauscher, Cindy Benites, Nora Hood, September Wallace, Ann Barron. SEATED: Dori Egan, Nita Allen, Echo Reid (president), Sue Dal Ferro, Nancy Barron, Linda Silvera, Texas Triggs.

Pictured (right to left) are the members of the Rebel Record staff: John Gullak, page 3 editor; Joan Van Hulle, assistant editor; Mr. Thomas, advisor; John Wood, editor-in-chief; Barbara Jasinski, business manager; Judy Kendrick, ads; Vicki Taylor, ads; Charlene Doiron, exchange editor; Sharon Nemeth, copy editor; Nora Ramirez, page 1 editor; Kathie Minami, page 2 editor; Ralph Miljanich, staff photographer; Jeff Brogan, reporter; Tim Demosthenes, page 4 editor; Rocky Heether, reporter; Tim Ireland, reporter; Mark McLerran, reporter; Steve Simpson, reporter; Eugene Hahn, reporter; Debbie Murchison, reporter; Tim Silva, reporter.

REBEL RECORD

The Rebel Record staff publishes the school newspaper twice a month. Between times of distribution, staff members work diligently to meet their deadlines.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Dale Chesnutt, Carol Rice, Dori Egan, Bob Flanary, Nancy Burns, Bonnie Lind, Wanna Mason, Jeff Kataoka.

The Finance Committee's function was to handle all money involved in Student Body affairs. They handled tickets at games and money from all sales. They proved to be an important part of the Student Body. At the right, members of the Finance Committee are shown collecting tickets at a game.

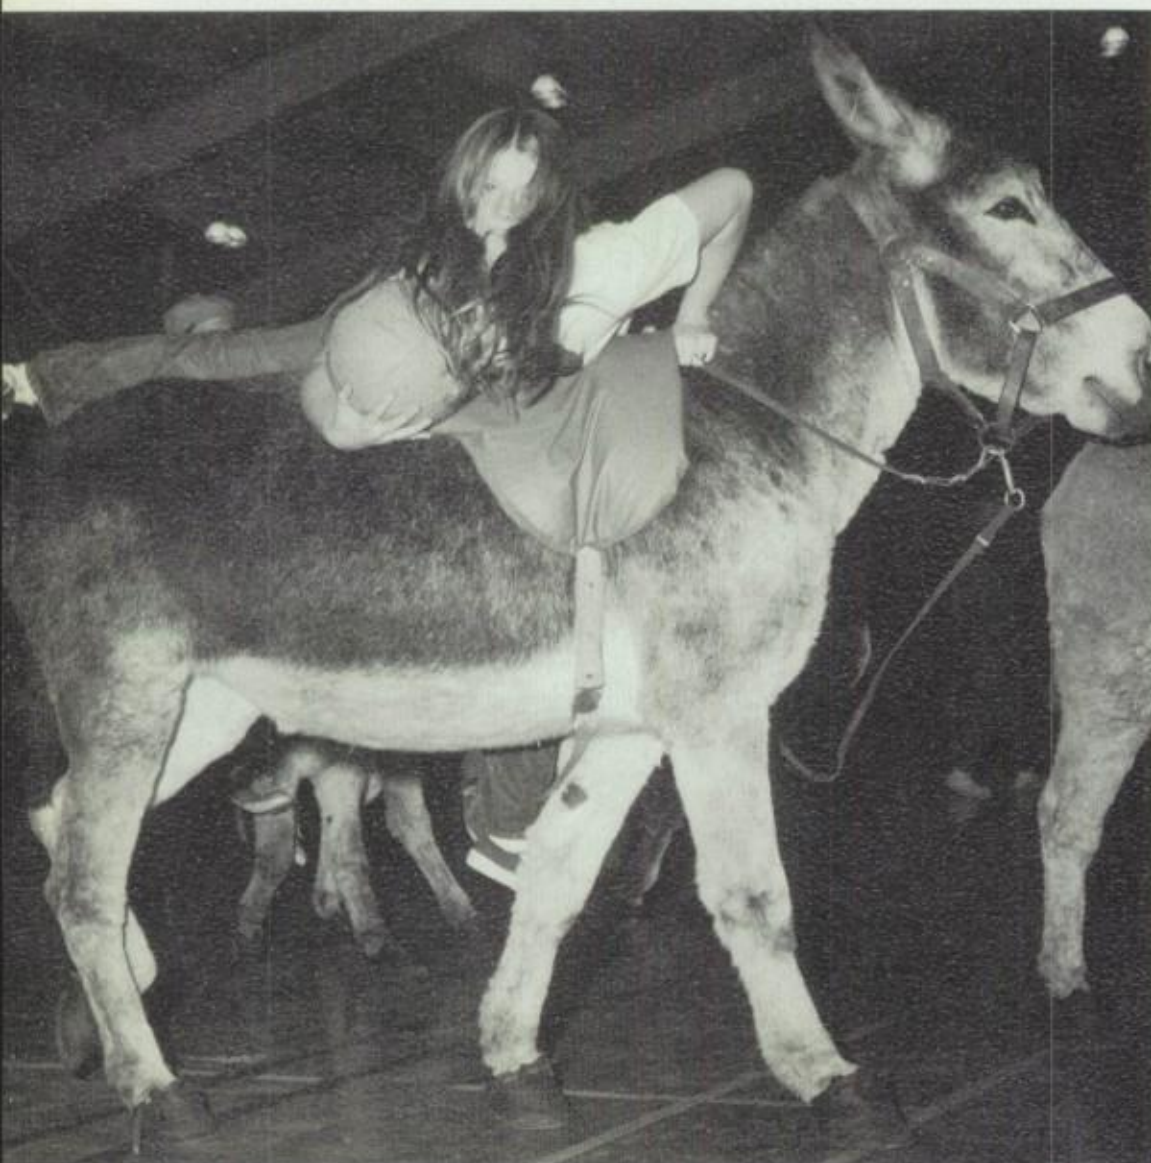

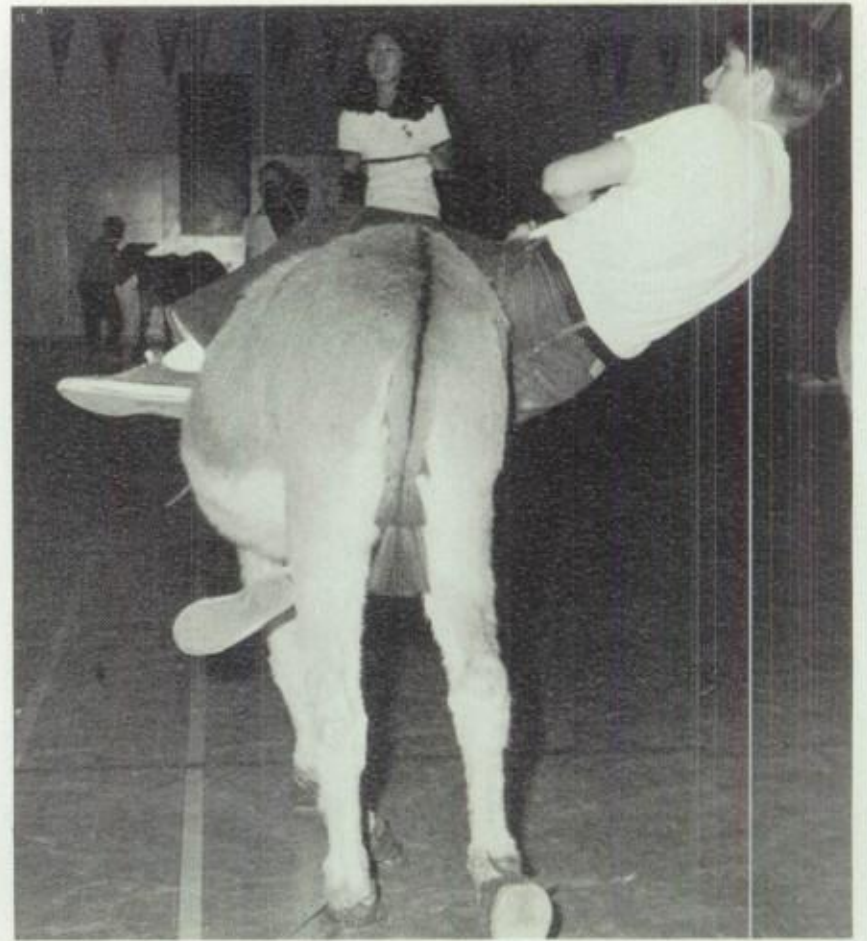

STUDENTS INVOLVED

This year, ecology made headlines in newspapers and at San Lorenzo High School. Students were involved with several street and campus sweeps, and many helped with the cleaning up of the San Francisco Bay oil spillage. Among their other activities was the development of a recycling center and of a nature pond area.

DONKEY BASKETBALL

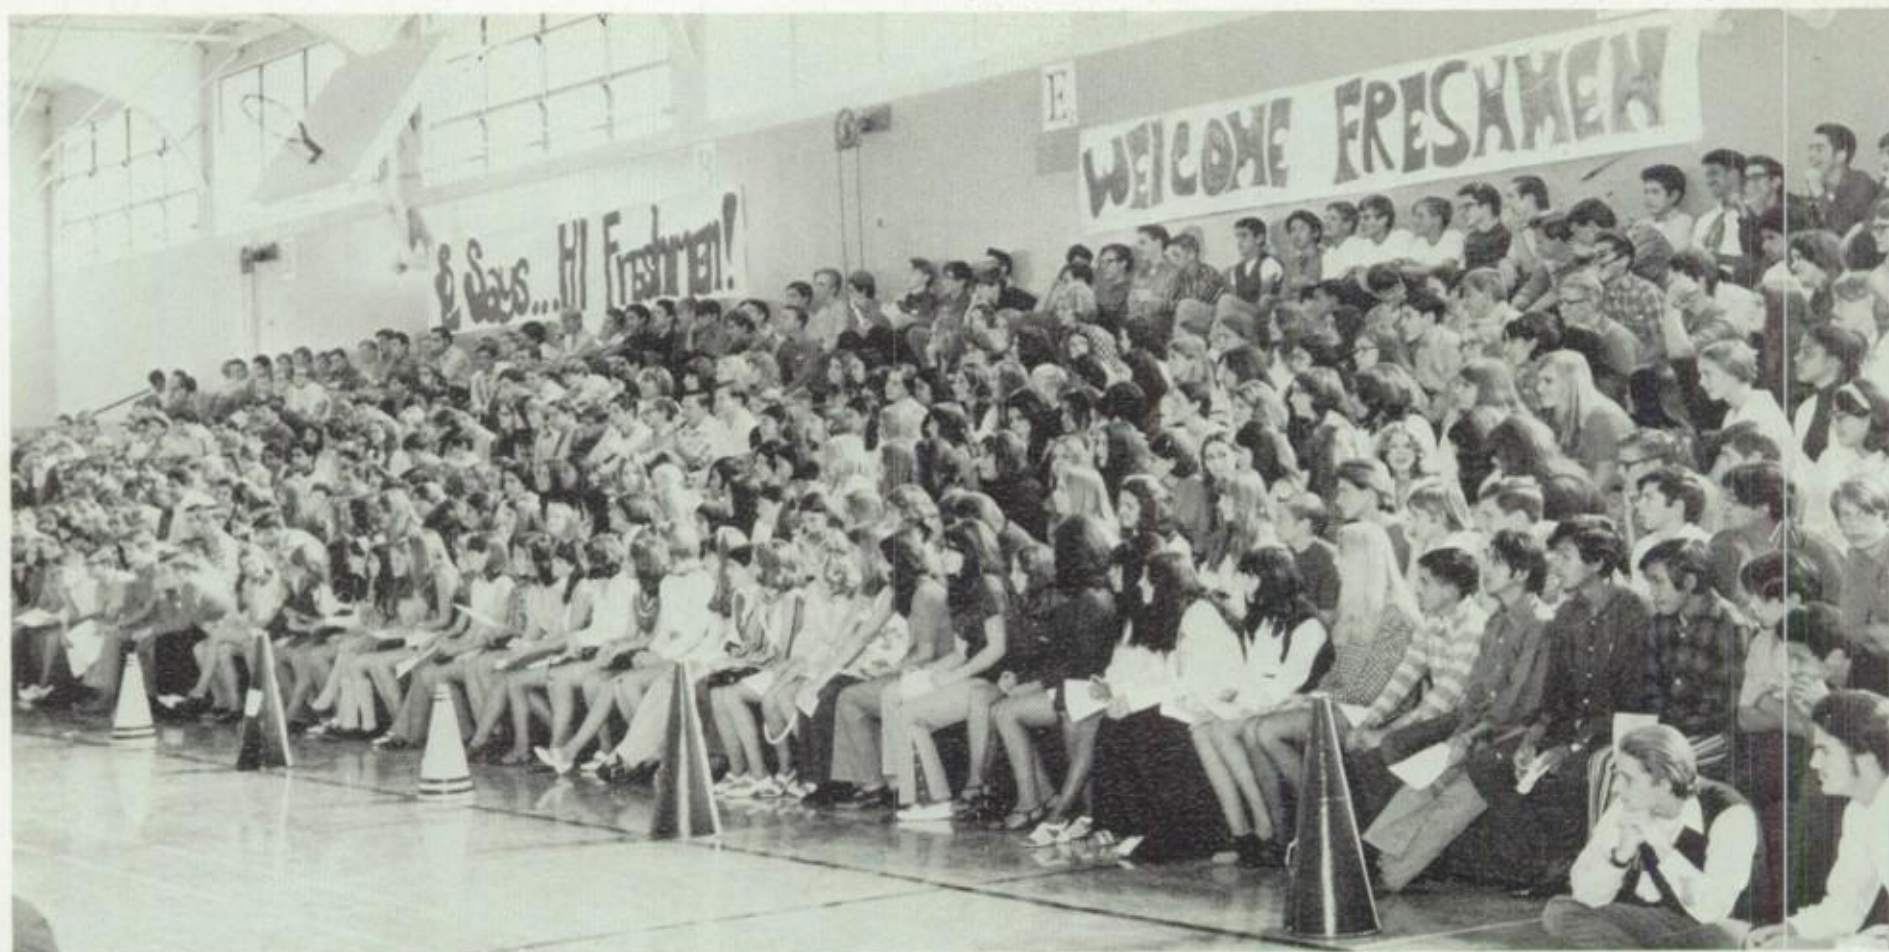

December 5, Saturday, marked the night that San Lorenzo held its Donkey Basketball Game. With determination, but little cooperation from their donkeys, all players rode, pulled, yanked, and kicked to make their scores. Executive Council rode to victory over the faculty, with the upper classmen defeating the under classmen. It was an exciting and different game, not to be forgotten.

FRESHMAN DAY

Freshman Day on the San Lorenzo campus featured many new activities. Among them was the special entertainment provided by the D-Dynamics. Other Freshman Day activities included class officer nominations and a special barbecue which was conducted by Rebel cheerleaders and song girls.

FRESHMAN TEA

The annual Freshman Tea was held on September 30, 1970. The theme of the tea, which was held in the gaily decorated girls' gym, was "Happiness is a Friend." Eva Flores, President, and other members worked constructively and planned for weeks in advance to make it a successful and memorable tea. Helping with entertainment were the spirited yell leaders who did a cry of, "We are the Rebels," and Evelyn Cervantes, who performed a song routine. Members of Girls' League provided the refreshments.

SPORTS

FRONT ROW: Chris Chelucci, Mike Allar, Craig Apodaca, Marty Jenkins, Allen Powell, John Richardson, Rick Moore, Tony Cambruzzi, and Rocky Heether. SECOND ROW: Coach Andrich, Steve Martinez, Dave Donahue, Stephen Gibbs, Matt Triggs, Dave Tsuboi, Scott Moore, Dean Nissen, Mike Miller, Tim Ireland, Mike Bianchi, and John Kawahara. THIRD ROW: Coach Lane, Doug McNally, Rich Vasser, Mark Anegeja, Paul Snider, Walt Dutchover, Wayne Bogart, Rod Taylor, Hal Doell, and Ray Nava. BACK ROW: Jeff Thatcher, Steve Olsson, Randy Hudson, Milt Janetos, Ron Bellmer, Lloyd Stark, Dan Jackson, Coach Dore, Coach Valois, and Clay Reid.

CHAMPS!

Before the season Coach Dore strongly felt that this year's team was going to be the best ever to play for San Lorenzo. Their season record of 7-1, which gave them a tie for the championship with Tennyson, proved the belief of Coach Dore to be true.

Heading the league's best offense which amassed 232 points in 8 games, was quarterback Tim Ireland. Tim rewrote all the record books with his aerial attacks. His fine corps of receivers included Hal Doell, Doug McNally, Ray Nava, and Marty Jenkins. The running game was spearheaded by Matt Triggs, Dan Jackson, Rocky Heether, and Rich Vasser.

The Rebel defense, yielding a league low of 106 points throughout the season, complimented the play of the offense. Stand-outs for the defense were Steve Gibbs, Milt Janetos, Chris Chelucci, John Richardson and John Kawahara.

CHAMPS!

San Lorenzo's two All-South County members, quarter-back Tim Ireland (shown above, hurling a pass against Mt. Eden) and end Doug McNally (pictured below, making a reception against Canyon) combined their skills for 29 receptions to lead the Rebels' vaunted air attacks.

League's Number One . . .

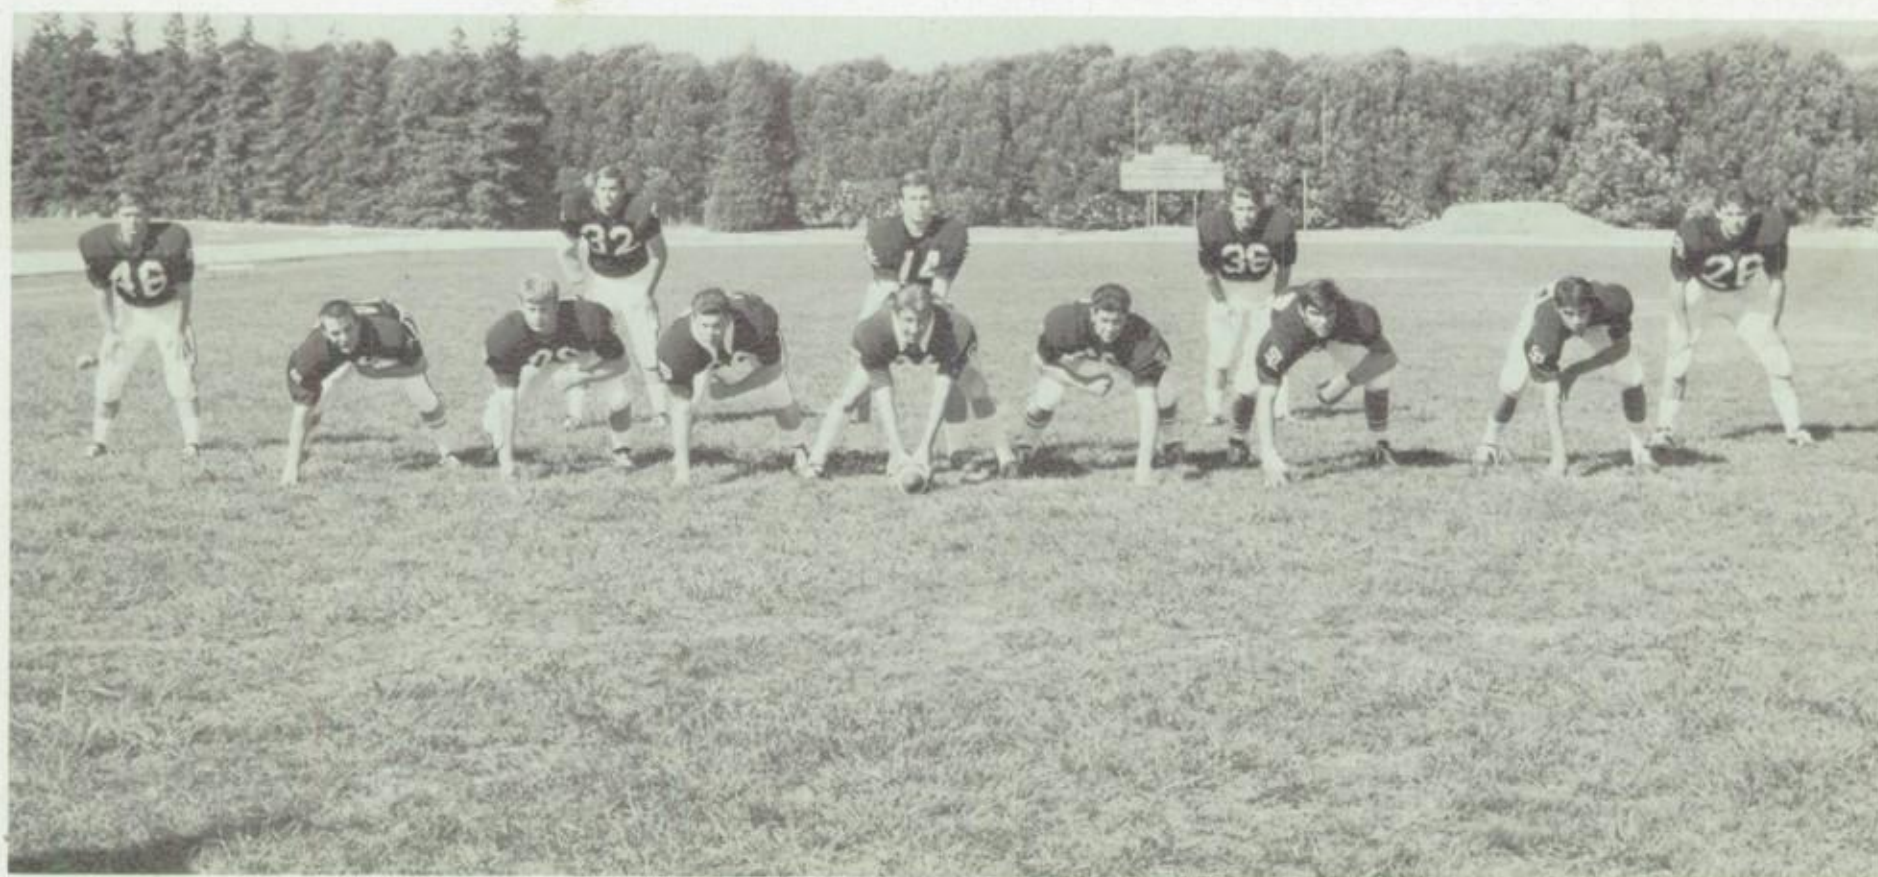

RESULTS

SLZ

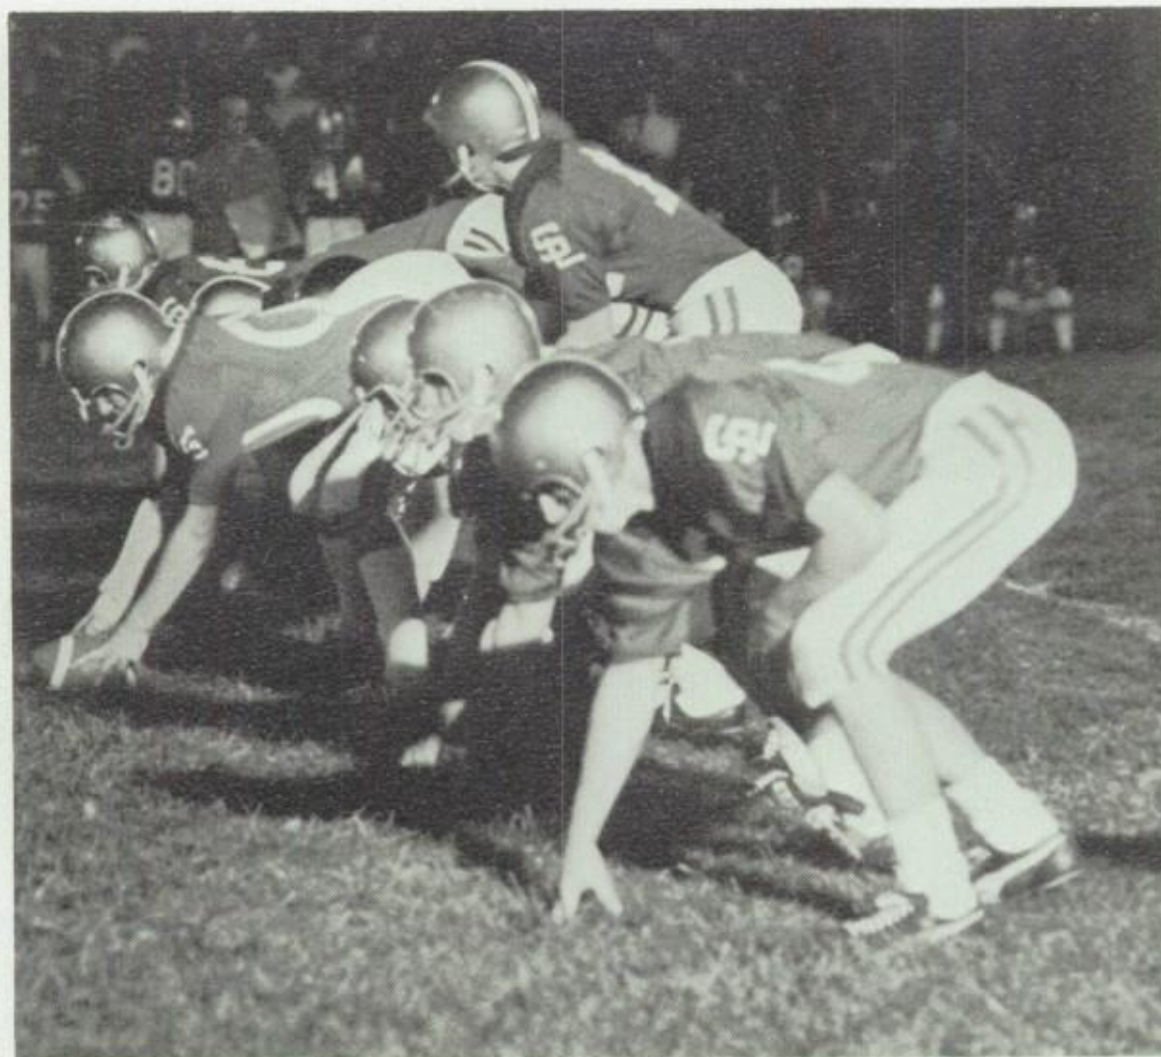

16	ARROYO	7
30	TENNYSON	40
25	C. VALLEY	14
33	HAYWARD	12
16	MT. EDEN	13
49	MARINA	8
20	CANYON	6
43	SUNSET	6
232		112

With this fine record of 7 wins and 1 loss, the supremacy of the Rebs is displayed in these point totals. Averaging 29 points a game, the league's most feared offense broke all scoring records of the HAAL with its 232 point total. 16 of the points were credited to the fine play of our defense. Because of the Reb's stingy defense, the opponents found it difficult to cross the Rebel goal line. The defense gave up only 112 points an average of 2 touchdowns per game.

Dave, I've really enjoyed having you around this year, and talking to you, crackin' jokes and everything else, Spirit Week was a blast, and we'll probably win next year too! Juniors is gettin' up there but when we're seniors we can order everybody around, not that they do now but it'll give us a kind of authority. Well have a blast this summer ridin' around in your car with all the guys. (omigods) Bye for now,

J.V. AND FROSH GAIN EXPERIENCE

FIRST ROW: Randy Mitchell, Simon Triggs, Greg Van Nort, Dave Camancho, Gene Bowman, Mike Higgins, Bob Nappo, Eugene Lewis, Randy Almadova, Richard Blanton, Paul Finnegan, Mike Olsson, Lloyd Mabe. SECOND ROW: Bob Silva, Dave Goard, Ted Doiron, Lenny Moore, Roland Henry, Mike Milner, Ed Moore, Greg Gomez, Ben Endman, John Benjamin, Greg Bento, Gil Gilbert. THIRD ROW: Steve McEathern, Steve Testerman, Tony Robles, Bill Gatter, Larry Parks, Mark Rameriz, Jorge Cifuentes, Jim Rossi, Mike Pacecho, Isaac Rodriques. FOURTH ROW: Rory Nissen, Richard Berg, Raymond Reyes, Jim Lautz, Jostin Miller, Joe Cahill, Don Penez, John Lants, Ron Hilget, Mark Sandean, Bob Hill, John Martinez, Coach Angelo Madrigal.

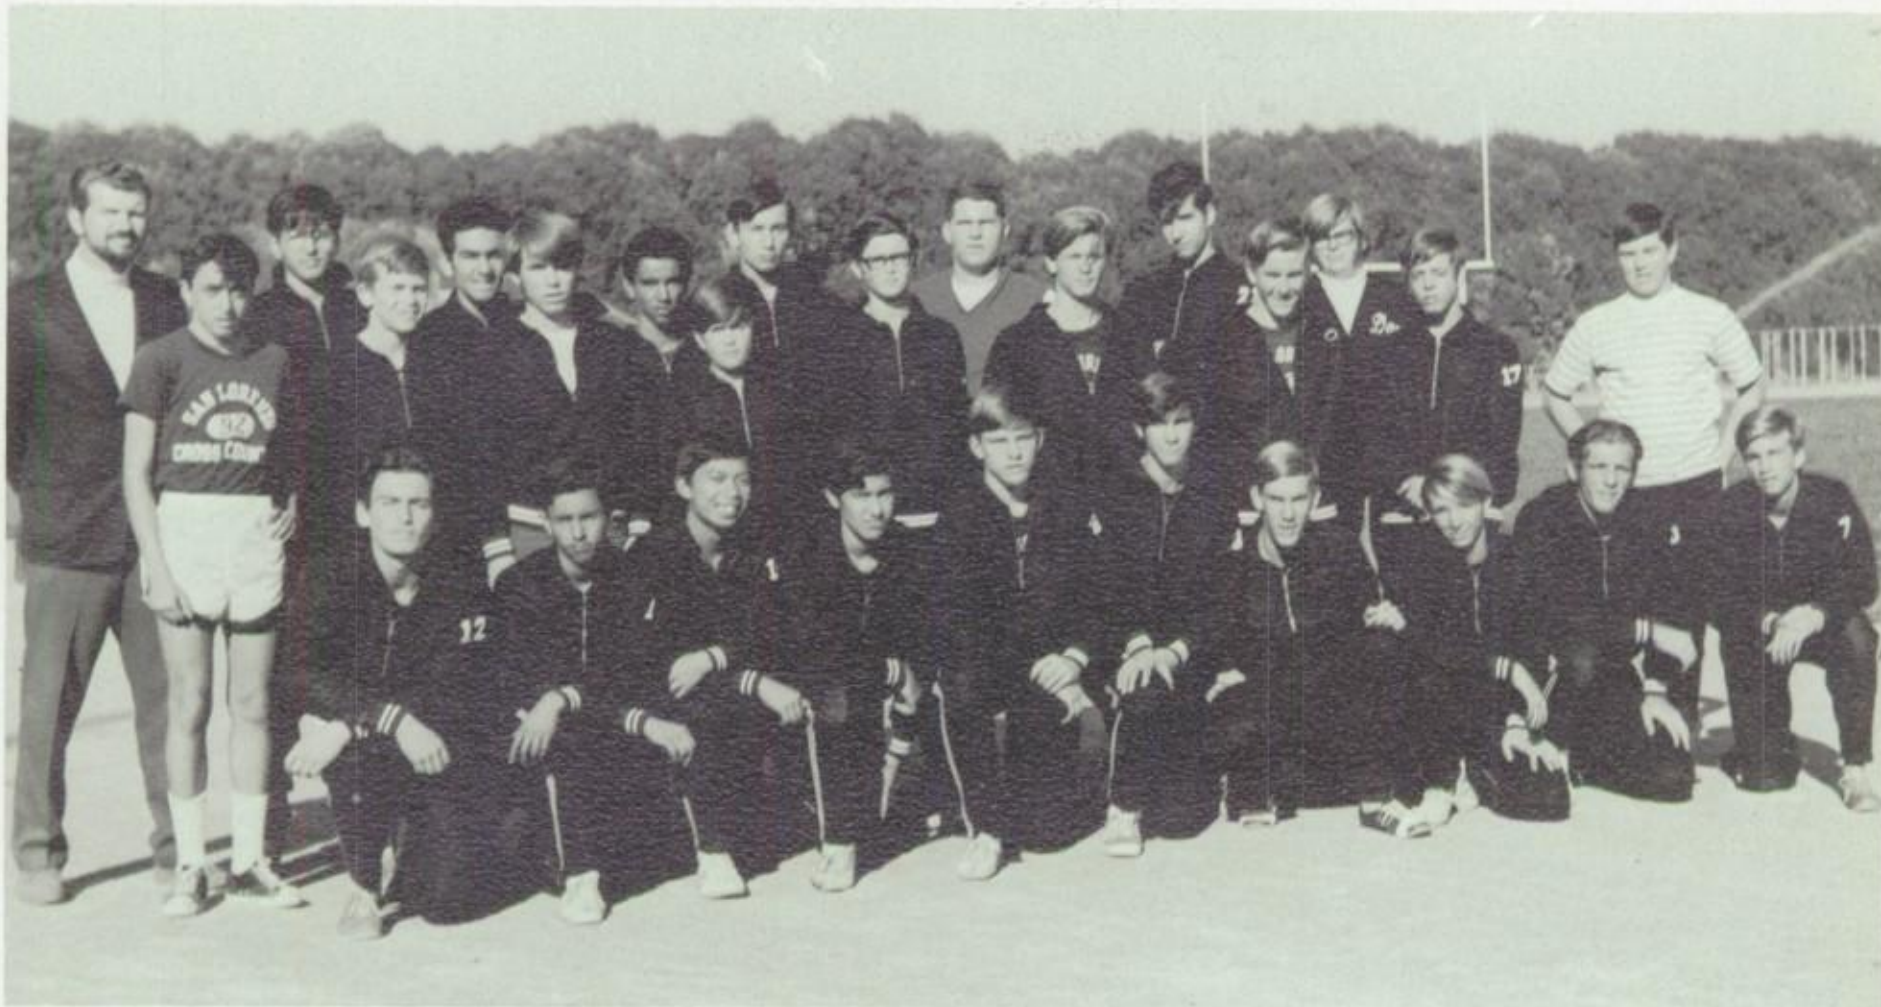

Even though the Junior Varsity and Frosh-Soph football teams both suffered losing seasons, the experience these young players gained through competition will be a key factor once they reach Varsity level.

The J.V.'s improved during each game and finished their season with two wins in a row. Coach Lane's forces were impressive in their victories over Canyon and Sunset. Outstanding performers were Dave Tsuboi, Mark Anegeja, Del Barros, Craig Richards, Bob Corsun, and John Peace.

It was a long season for Coach Madrigal and the Rebel yearlings, as winning was placed secondary to learning. Fundamentals, technique, and discipline were built into the Frosh system. Frosh stand-outs were Richard Blanton, John Martinez, Randy Mitchell, Bob Nappo, Eugene Lewis, Tony Robles, and Randy Almadova.

CROSS COUNTRY

The San Lorenzo Cross Country team enjoyed one of its finest seasons in recent history. Coach Mike Fuhrig singled out Ted Quintana and Ken Peterson as the squad's finest runners. Both placed high in the league meet. Dale Oakes, Scott Clark and Dave Cooper also were top runners. The cindermen finished with winning records in dual meets and placed fourth in the league finals.

BASKETBALL

San Lorenzo Style

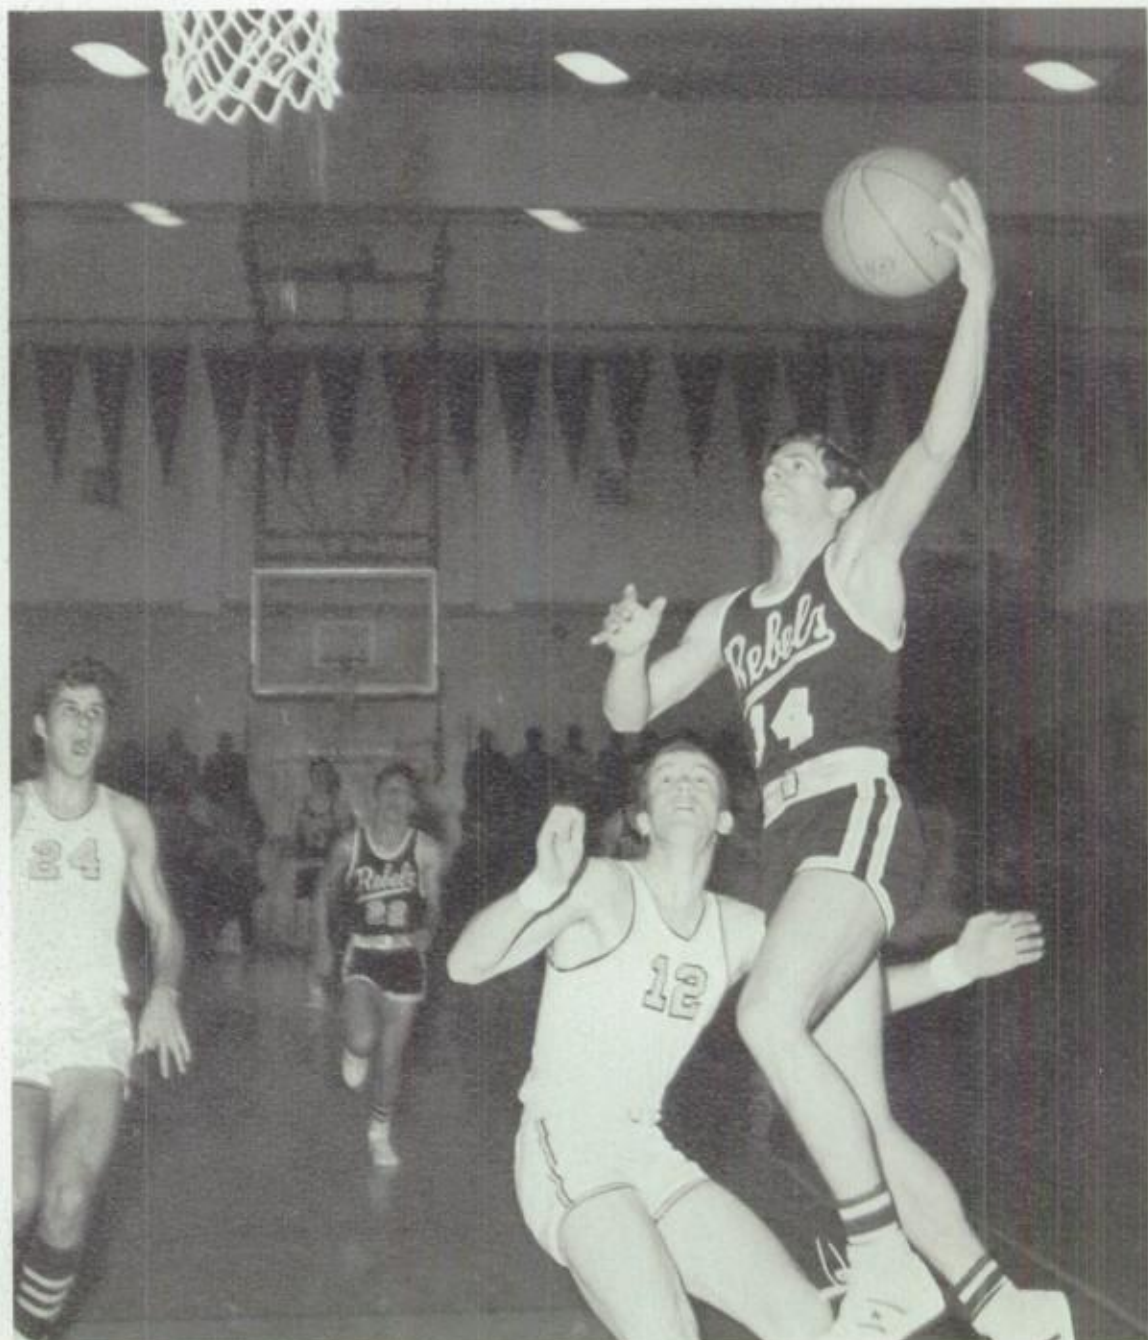

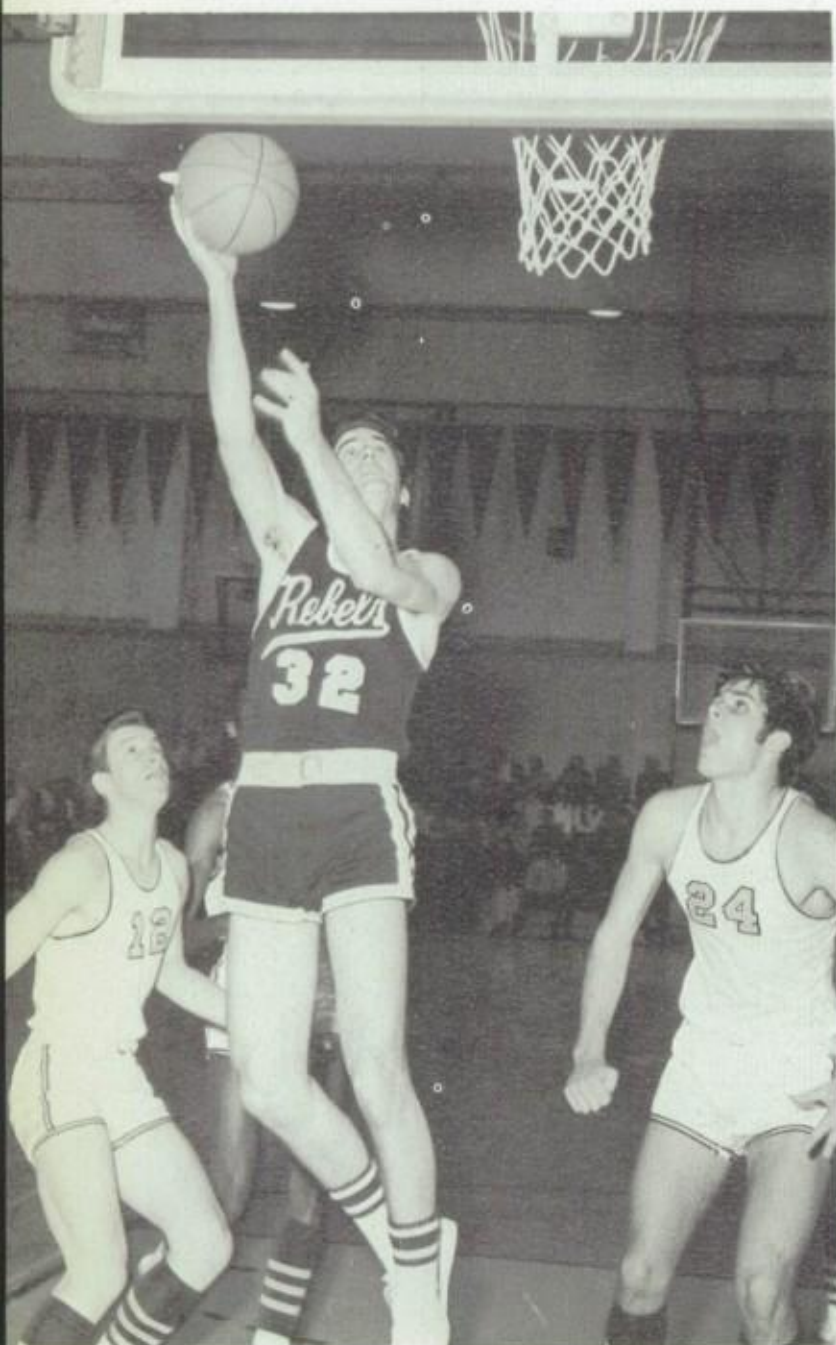

FRONT ROW: John Wood, Chris Lamb, Ken Peluso, Don Wedemeyer; BACK ROW: Terry Kintz, John Garcia, Mike Carvin, Tim Ireland, and Tom Dayak. Missing were George Hoybjerg, Doug McNally, and Howie Long.

Called by Coach Mangin, "the best basketball team to ever step on the court in a San Lorenzo uniform," the 1970-71 Rebel hoopsters finished with a 21-3 won-loss record. This ranked as the second best record in the entire Bay Area, second only to Hayward's 22-2.

Defense was stressed by Coach Mangin. Thanks to their tenacious defense and unrelenting running attack, the Rebels raced through their successful season, running up huge leads in most games. Opposing teams were constantly harassed into numerous ball-control errors by "Mr. Hustle," John Garcia, and San Lorenzo "super guard," Tom Dayak.

The Rebel season was truly a team effort as all twelve players made substantial contributions. John Wood, Chris Lamb, and George Hoybjerg started most of the season and scored consistently to compliment the Rebs' fine defense. Terry Kintz, Mike Carvin, Ken Peluso, and Tim Ireland all provided excellent depth, and Howie Long, Doug McNally, and Don Wedemeyer gave the fans some good exhibitions on hook shooting, fancy playmaking, and tough rebounding.

Above, "Jumping" George Hoybjerg darted past Farmers for an easy bank shot. Below, Head Coach Mangin displayed mixed emotions in Reb victory.

ROUND BALLERS SUCCESSFUL IN LEAGUE

Dayak found a hole in the Farmer defense and went up and in for two.

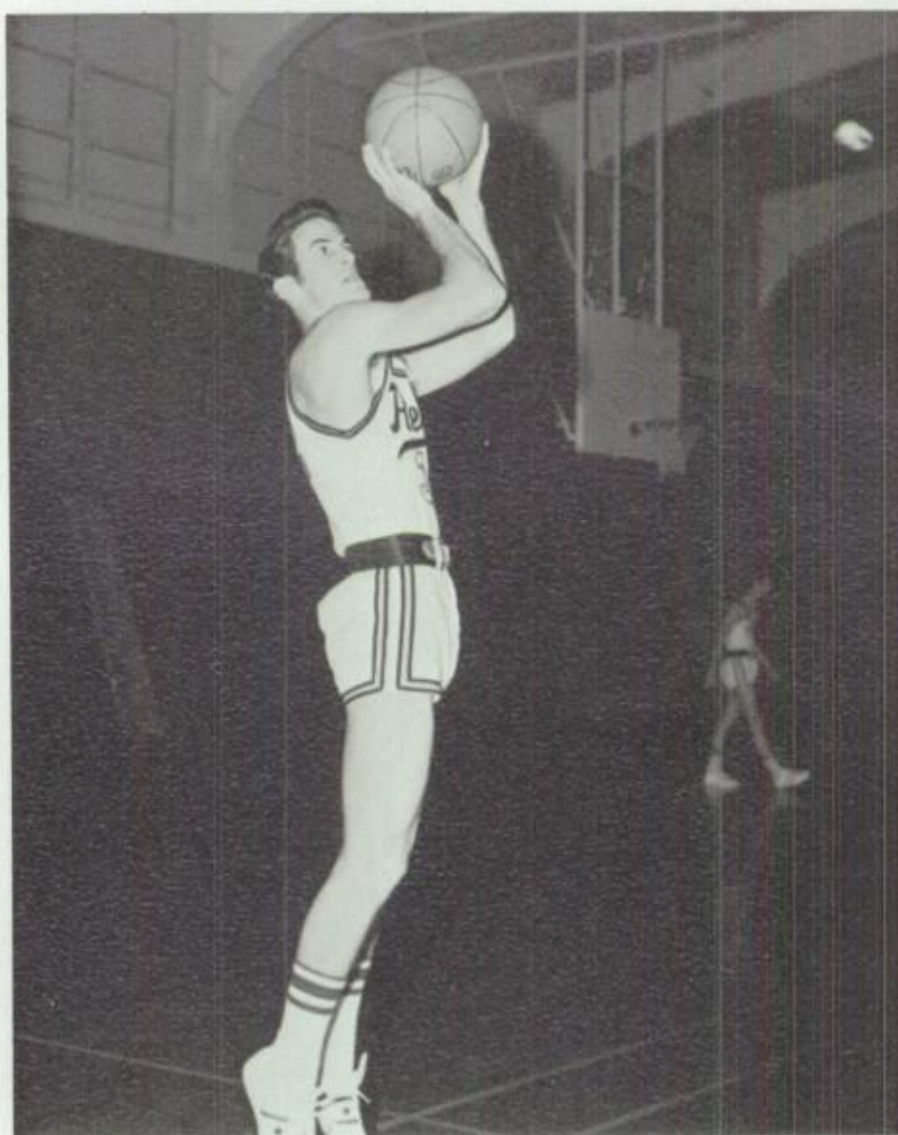

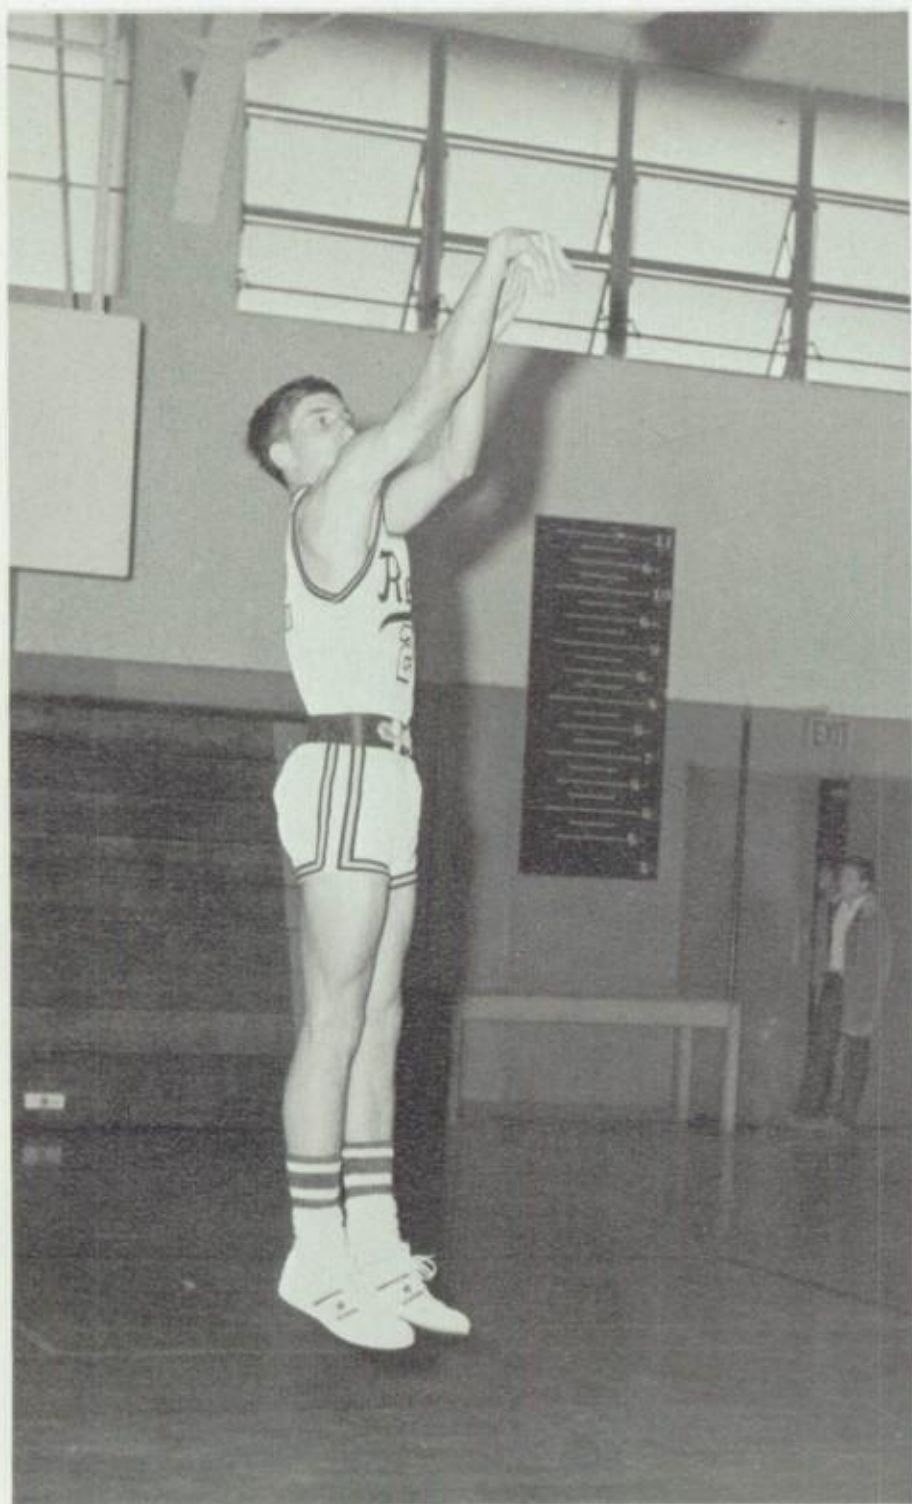

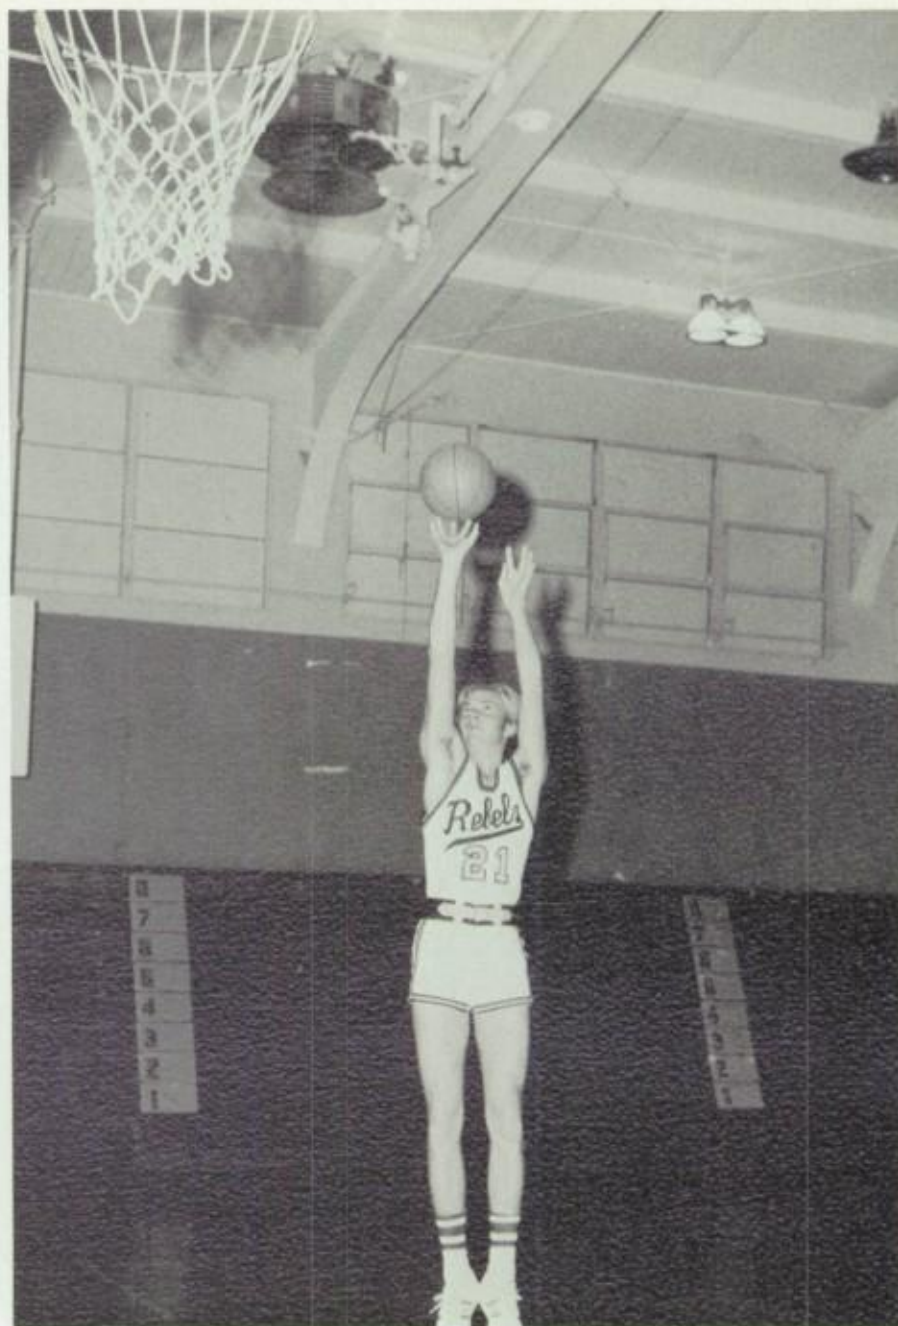

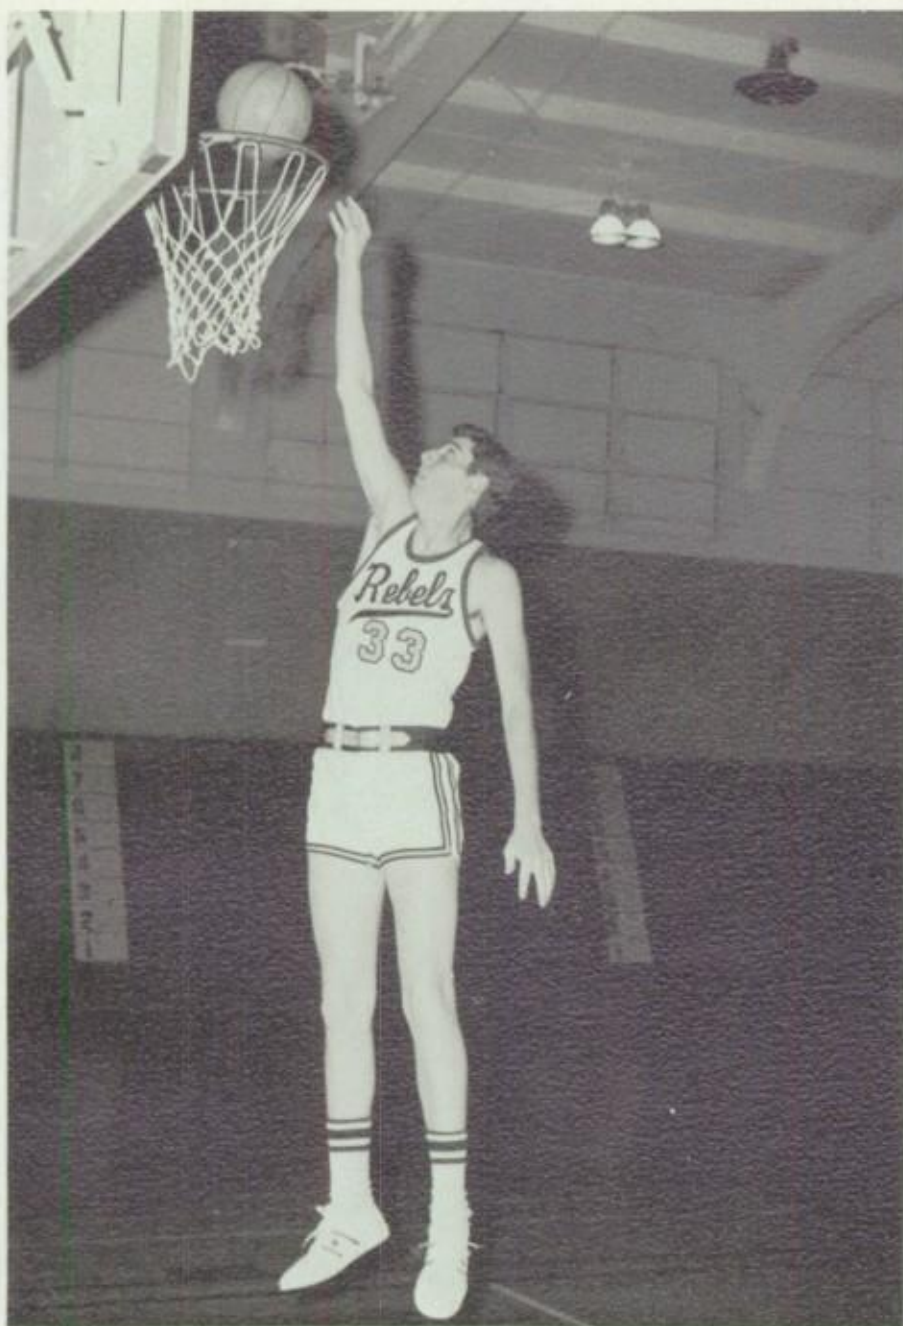

With a soft lay-up for the Rebel hoop, Garcia avoided violation of the no-dunk rule.

In the year of the Farmer, both the Junior Varsity and Frosh-Soph basketball teams enjoyed winning seasons. Coach Hoffmann's forces compiled a respectable 13-3 record while the Frosh, under the head mentor, Coach Rhodes, finished 9-7, good enough for third place.

The J.V. team, led by the devastating play of the Garcia brothers, Mark and Matt, maintained a record which was blemished only with two losses to Hayward and one to Arroyo. The fine development of this squad will be a key to the Varsity success next year. Only one player is returning from the V-squad, and J.V. players must replace the stars of '71.

The Frosh-Soph, although hampered by serious injuries to starters, were impressive with their style of play. Mark Leiker, Jim Bigelow, Chris Jin and John Larkin ignited the success of the "baby hoopsters" throughout their winning season.

"C" AND "D" HOOPTERS BEGIN CAREERS

Future development was stressed by "C" and "D" Coach Al Mangin as he groomed the young Rebels through a successful season. The "C's" led by sharp-shooters Doug Hopkins and Barney Demosthenes, fashioned a 5-3 record and were impressive in their fast-breaking style of basketball.

The "D's" were headed by John Larkin, and they finished with a respectable 4-4 seasonal won-lost record. Made up predominantly of freshmen, the "D" squad gained invaluable experience which will aid them in future years as Rebel varsity cagers.

The wrestling team had a fine year. Their record was a strong 11 wins and 3 losses. Two of the losses came from Tennyson and Mt. Eden, which ranked 8th and 11th respectively in the East Bay. Consistently, the team was led by Curt Kawabata, Matt Triggs, Chris Anaya, and Bruce Tucker. Through the efforts of these four men and of the rest of the team, they were able to take 1st place honors for both the Buchser and San Rafael Invitationals, and 2nd place in the San Lorenzo Invitational.

REBS DO IT ALL

(Opposite page, top) Field general, Coach Valois, offered expert advice on the science of the shot-put. (Opposite page, far left) Lloyd Stark, the Reb's premiere shot-putter, launched a shot. (Opposite page, left) Darryl Phillips prepared to let discus fly while Milton Janetos (above) showed a face of determination before tossing the shot. (Above, left) Reb high jumper, Mike Yoshino, easily cleared height with his Fosbery jump. (Left) Coach Hilbert shared his vaulting knowledge with Rebel pole-vaulters.

SPEED : REBEL NICKNAME

(Above) Two of the Rebs' outstanding group of sprinters, Richard Vasser and Steve Koss, demonstrated their starting technique. When the maroons added other sprinters, Mike Miller and Hal Doell, the Rebs displayed great potential in the sprints. This sprint quartet made its mark in the South County timings with an impressive 44.4 clocking (a school record) in the 440 relay. (Left) Joe Boyer, a Reb middle-distance runner running the 440 yard dash and mile relay, was another speed merchant on the thin-clad unit.

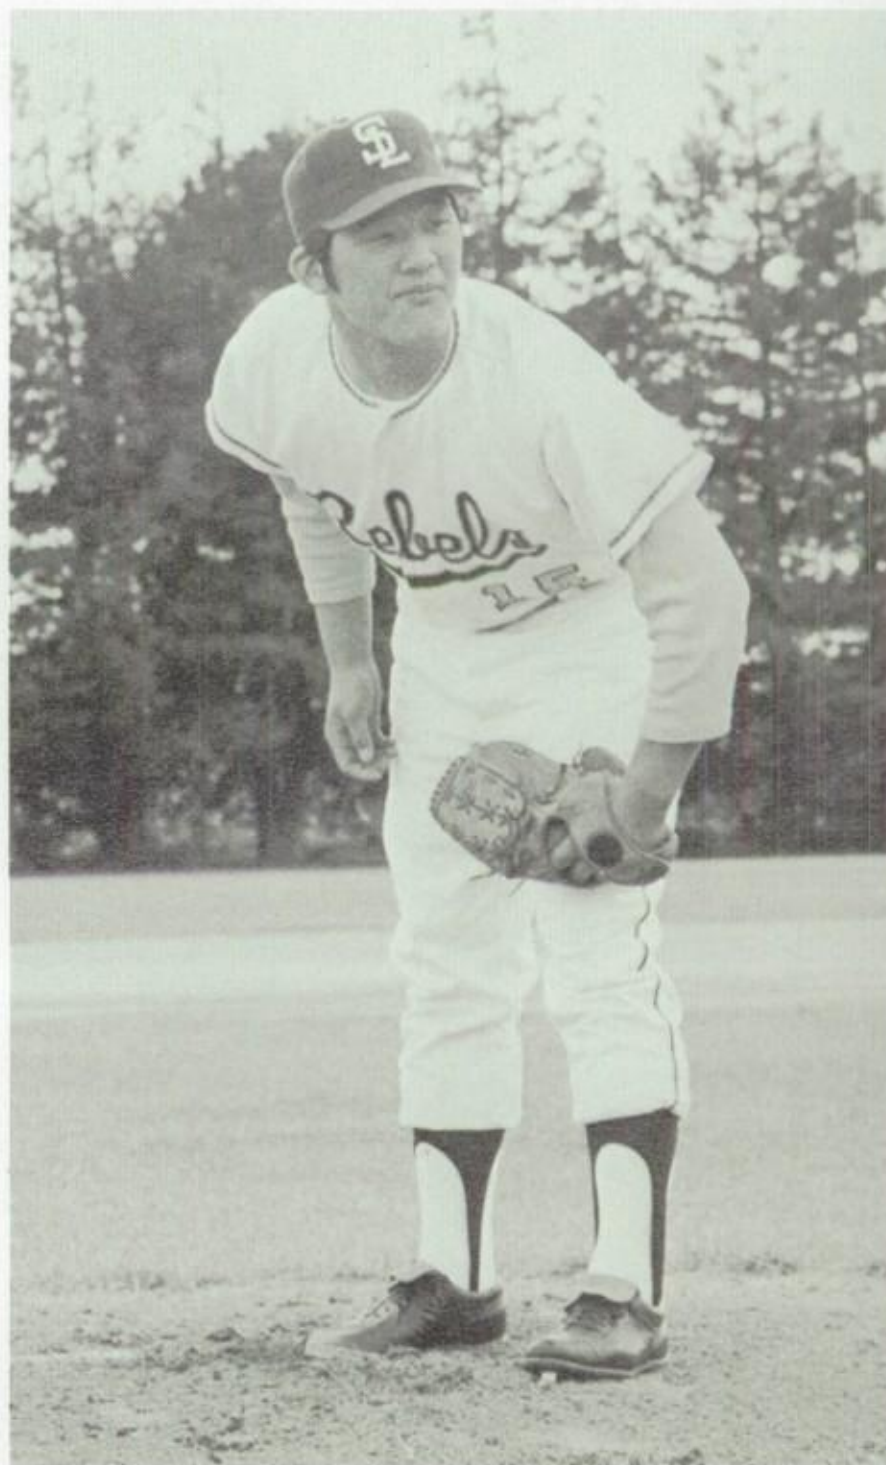

(Above, left) Long jumper, Bob Jacinto, seemed pleased with his effort. Lino Rosas built up endurance for long distance competition. (Far left and left) Hurdlers, Kurt Johnson and Steve Martinez, showed their flawless hurdling styles.

TRIP TO T.O.C.

REBEL INFIELD : SMOOTH AND FLUENT

(Above) Shortstop specialist, Tim Ireland, bare-handed a slow-roller and threw to first to nail the runner. (Below) Hal Doell eagerly awaited pop-up for an easy out.

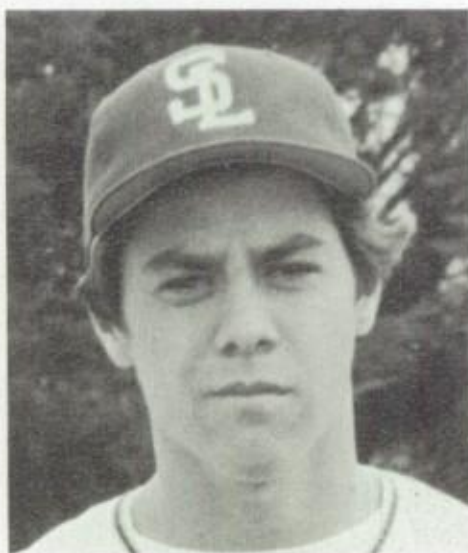

The Rebels sent to the field one of the soundest infields in our league. Anchored by shortstop, Tim Ireland, the Rebel infield proved a great asset to the team play of the 1971 Rebels.

REBEL OUTFIELD

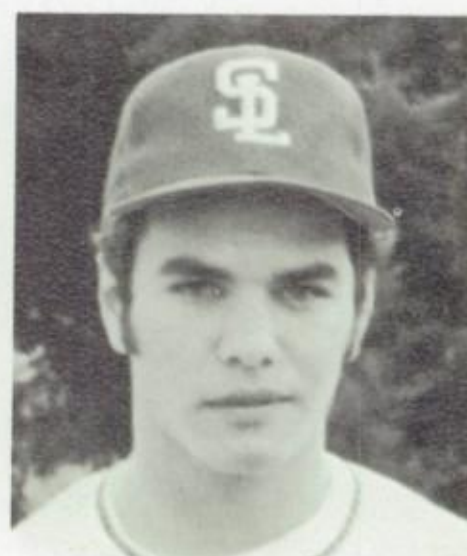

Ray Nava, Tuck Mayes, Dennis Hermosa, Rocky Heether, and Dan Jackson.

SOMETHING TO BELIEVE IN

Jackson, Hermosa, and Heether gave the Rebels a fine outfield, both offensively and defensively. All three bolstered the Rebel defense with numerous game-saving plays, and they added power to the offensive attack.

YOUNG REBS LEARNED WINNING WAYS

Ingrained into the baseball philosophy of the Junior Varsity horsehiders was the way of their head mentor, Coach Hoffmann. The success of the J.V.'s was attributed to their ability to play in the "Hoffman fashion."

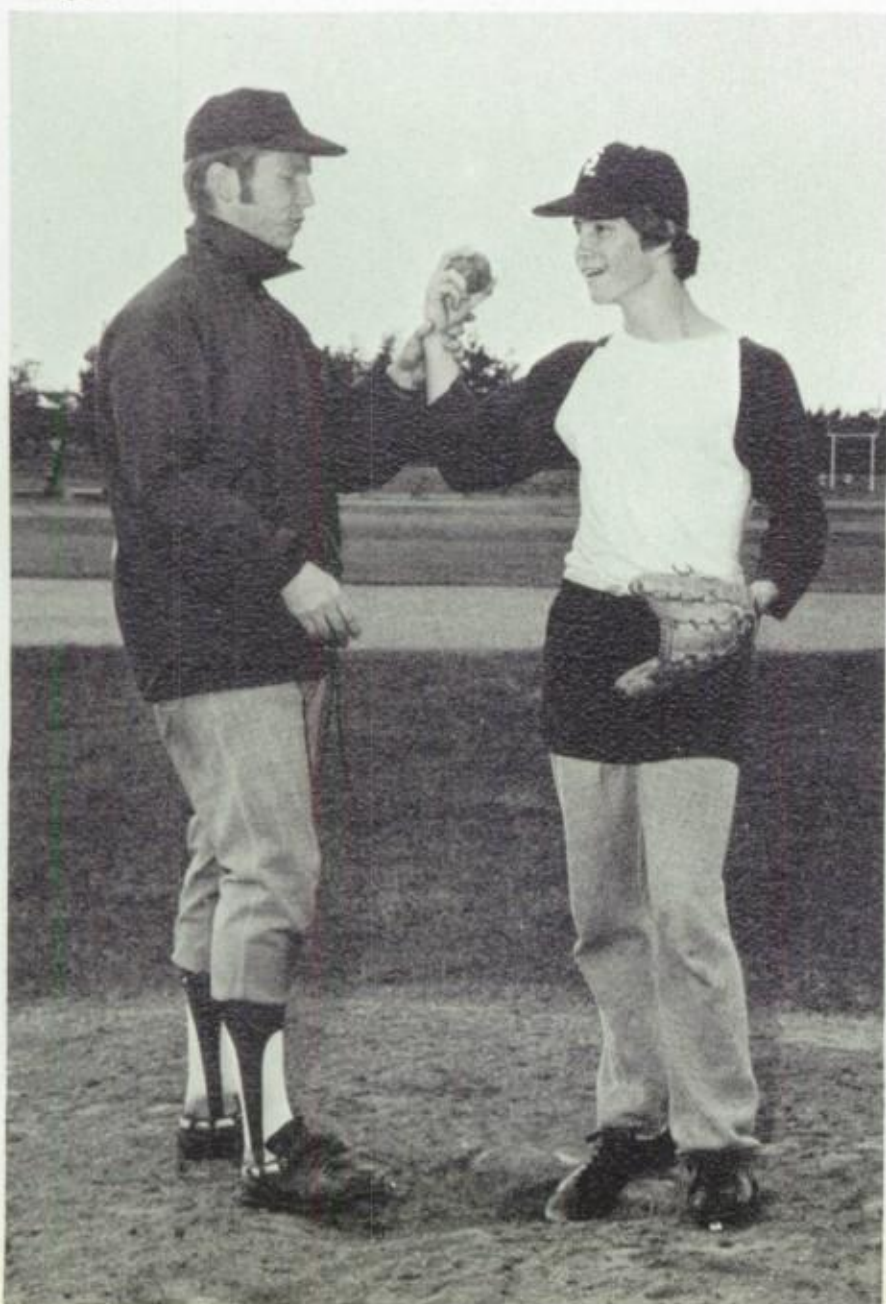

The J.V.'s had a fine pitching staff as Mark Hudson and Jeff Maruyama handled the starting chores. The main producers of the J.V.'s run production were Paul Finnegan, Jerry Hill, Richard Ordonez and Steve Devencenzi.

The Reb yearlings enjoyed their first year in a Rebel uniform. Coach Faith taught the "Rebbies" basic techniques and fundamentals which will be of invaluable importance once the Frosh players make it "up the hill."

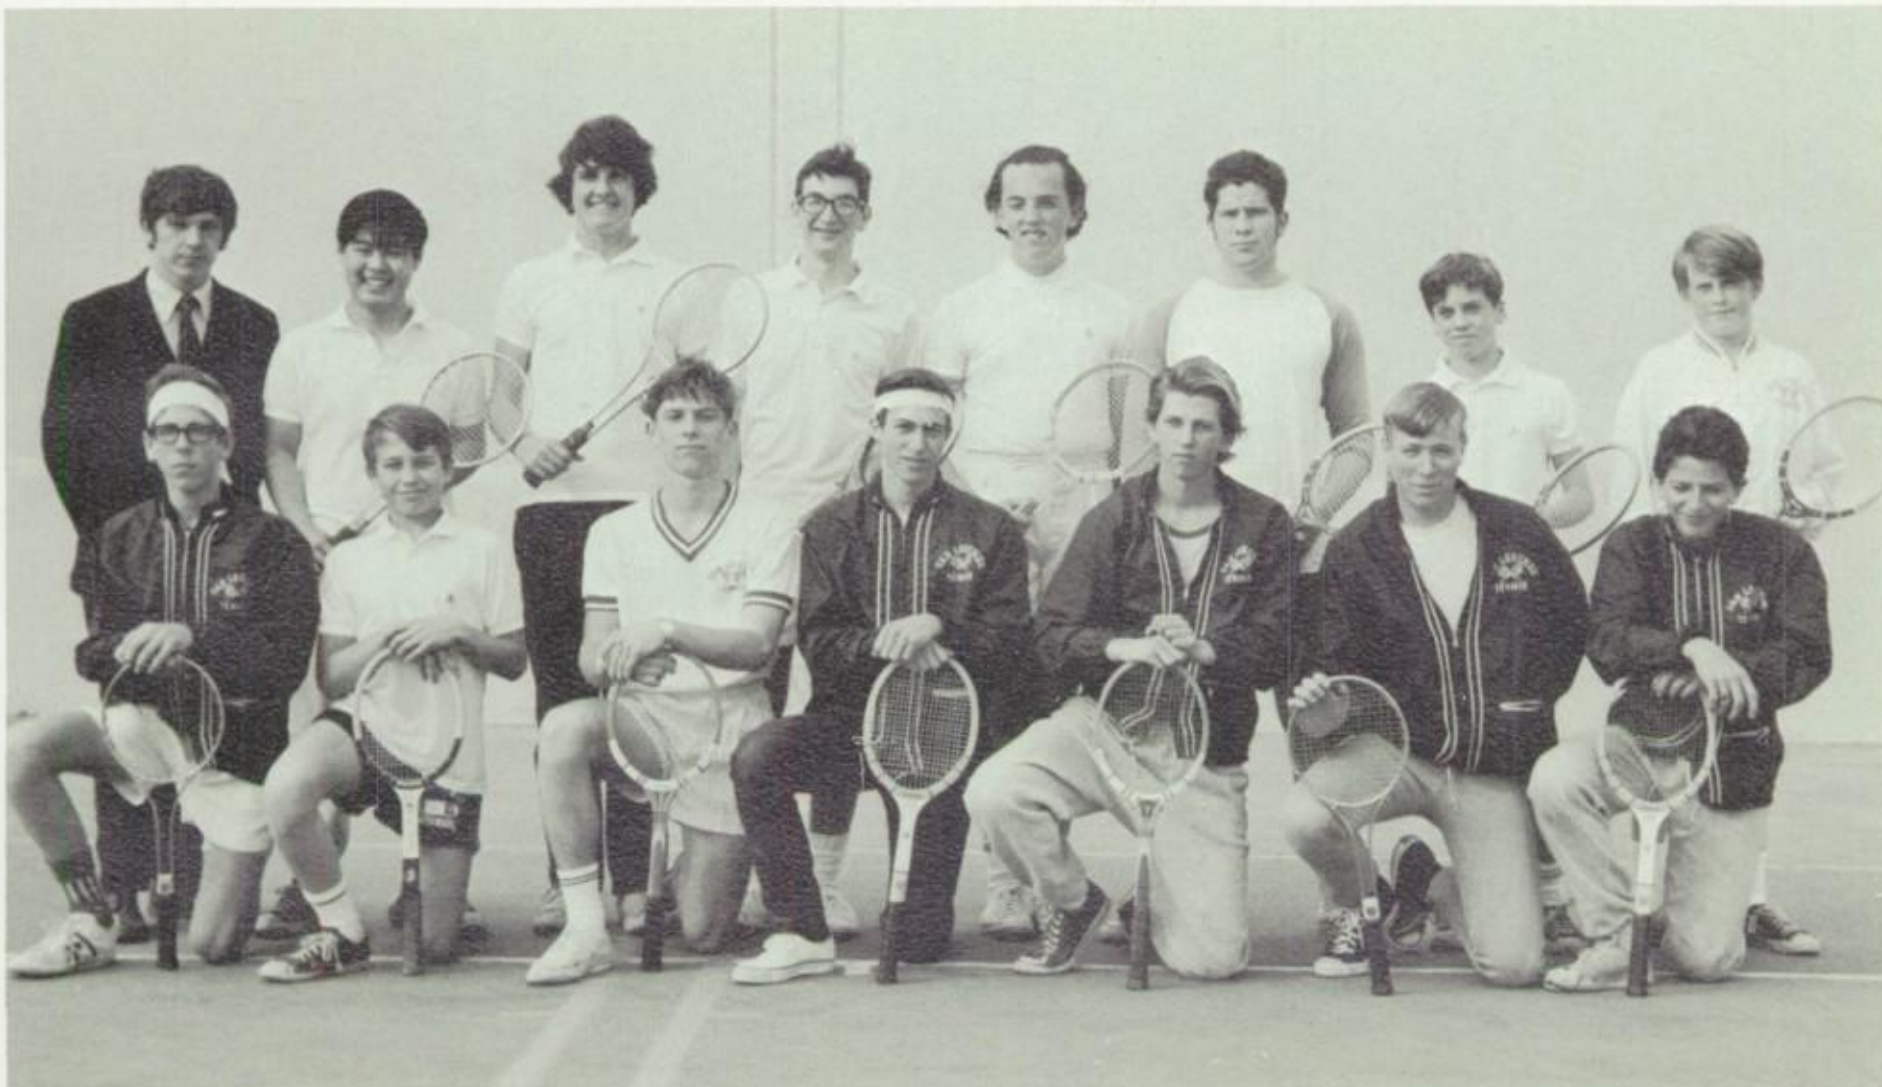

The Frosh hitting was led by Scott Ratte, Dave Hill, and Bob Silva. Silva, the Frosh's leading batman, was very impressive throughout the season. Greg Van Nort and Dan Moore also played key roles during the Rebs' campaign.

Pitching for the Frosh were Pat Scott and Steve Testerman. Both proved themselves to be fine hurlers and both have a good future in San Lorenzo's baseball program.

Coach Faith offered advice to Frosh hurler, Pat Scott.

REBEL TENNIS 1971

RACKETEERS HAD POTENTIAL TO BE LEAGUE CHAMPS

Bolstered by the sparkling, early performances of the young Rebel racketeers, Coach Downey's tennis team was expected to make a strong bid for the H.A.A.L. crown.

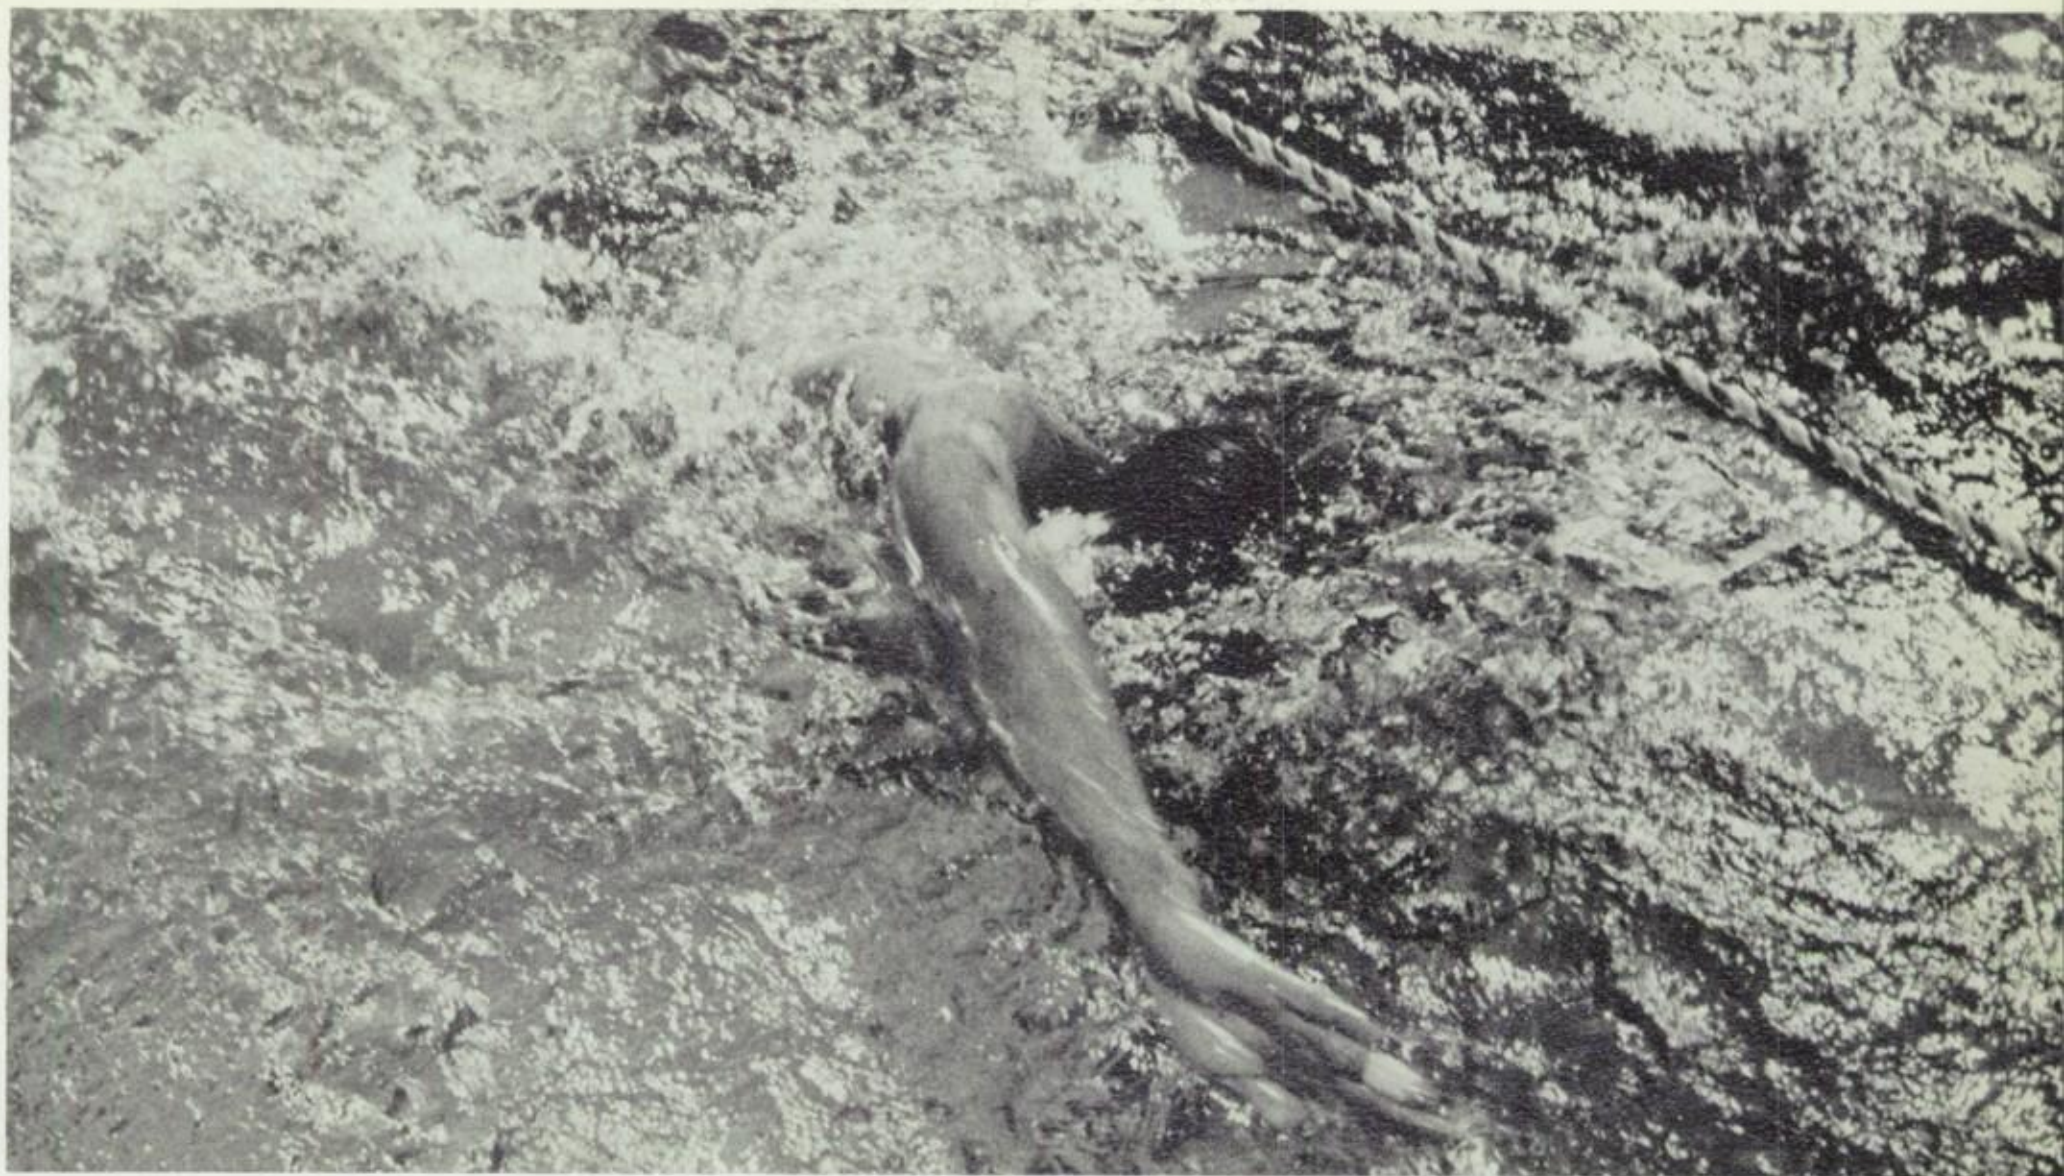

The men on the court were led by returning lettermen, Gary Swigget and Garry Candland, who were the team's top two players. Both were very impressive in the pre-season outings.

Chris Riehl, Craig Halvorsen, Gene Demaro, Steve Sandeen, and Brian Hudson were among the young Rebs who were expected to add depth to the varsity squad. The performances of these players were the key to whether or not San Lorenzo would challenge Marina or Canyon for the championship.

TITLE CONTENDERS

The 1971 Swim Team featured Gary Ruff as number one butterflyer, Dale "Sweet Pea" Oakes as number one freestyler, and John Walters as an important man on the freestyle relay. The team looked impressive after the first weeks of workout. San Lorenzo Swim Team was coached by Mr. Croghan (left).

(Top) Dave Hoselton displayed good style in the breaststroke. Dave swam the 200 individual medley, the breaststroke, and the butterfly.

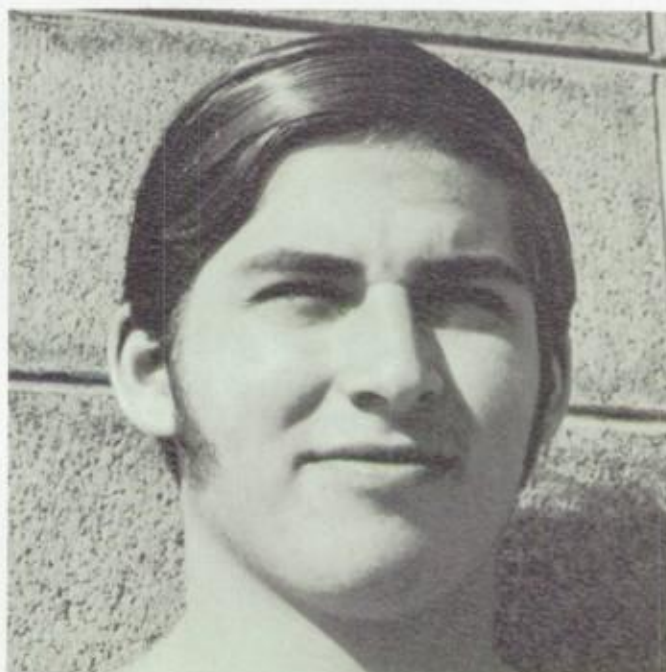

(Below) Dale "Sweet Pea" Oakes came up for air in the freestyle. Dale swam the breaststroke, the individual medley, and the freestyle.

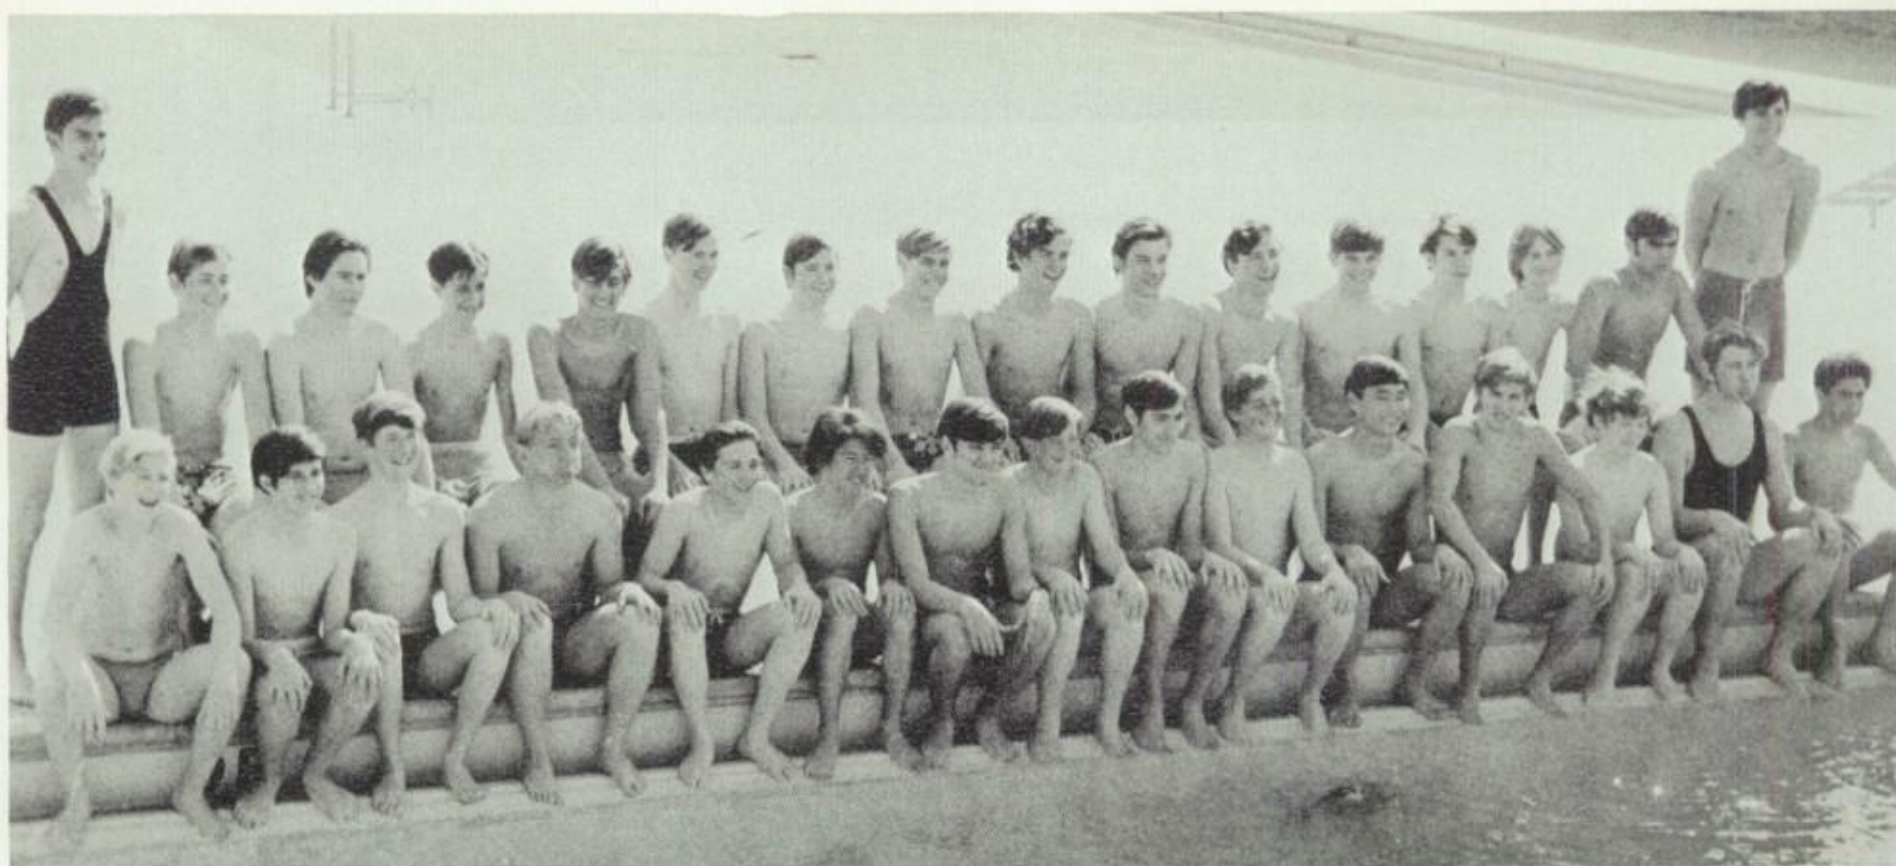

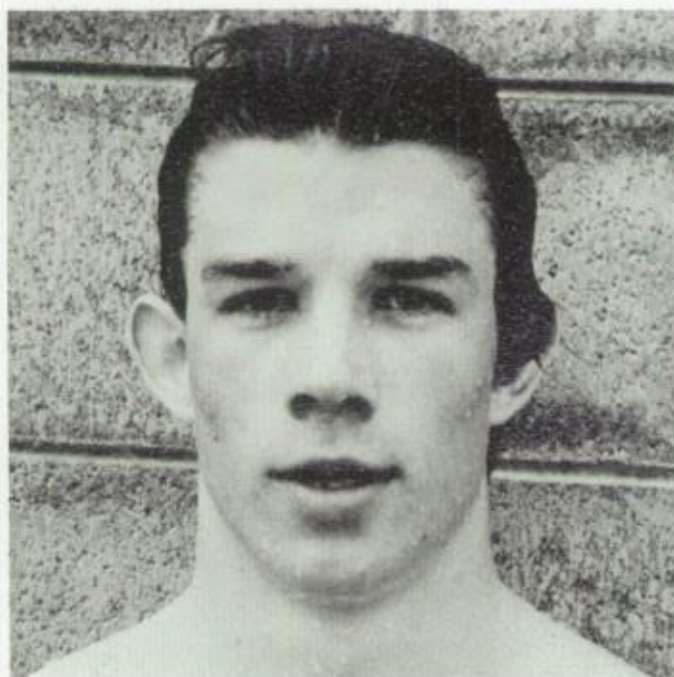

At left, Gary Ruff, who is shown displaying his style in the butterfly, was this year's team co-captain. He swam, in addition to the butterfly, the 400 yard freestyle.

The golf team of 1971 was led by the sparkling performances of their top four men, Tim Kroetch, Blake Swint, Jim Fluhart, and Lee Wilcox. The Rebel "duffers" were expected to challenge Hayward for a second consecutive championship. Tim Kroetch, the Rebel's ace, performed in a fashion that ranked him among the elite of all East Bay golfers. Kroetch consistently shot in the low 70's and potentially was a sub-par golfer. Coach Andrich felt his number two and three men, Blake Swint and Jim Fluhart, provided stiff competition for any league opponents. Blake, only a junior, was a stalwart in the Reb bid for league supremacy. Fluhart, a 7 handicapper, ignited Reb match-play performance with numerous key wins. The maroon and whites' fourth man, Lee Wilcox, added the depth necessary for a team to make a title bid. Jim Nonn, Mike White, and Jay Jacobs also performed in Rebel fashion throughout the year.

GIRL HOOPSTERS SHOW GOOD FORM

Members of San Lorenzo's GAA basketball team practiced many hours in order to develop their skills. A strong squad was the result of the practices held after school. Miss Braden, utilizing her extensive experience, developed a talented team which contended for league titles in GAA competition.

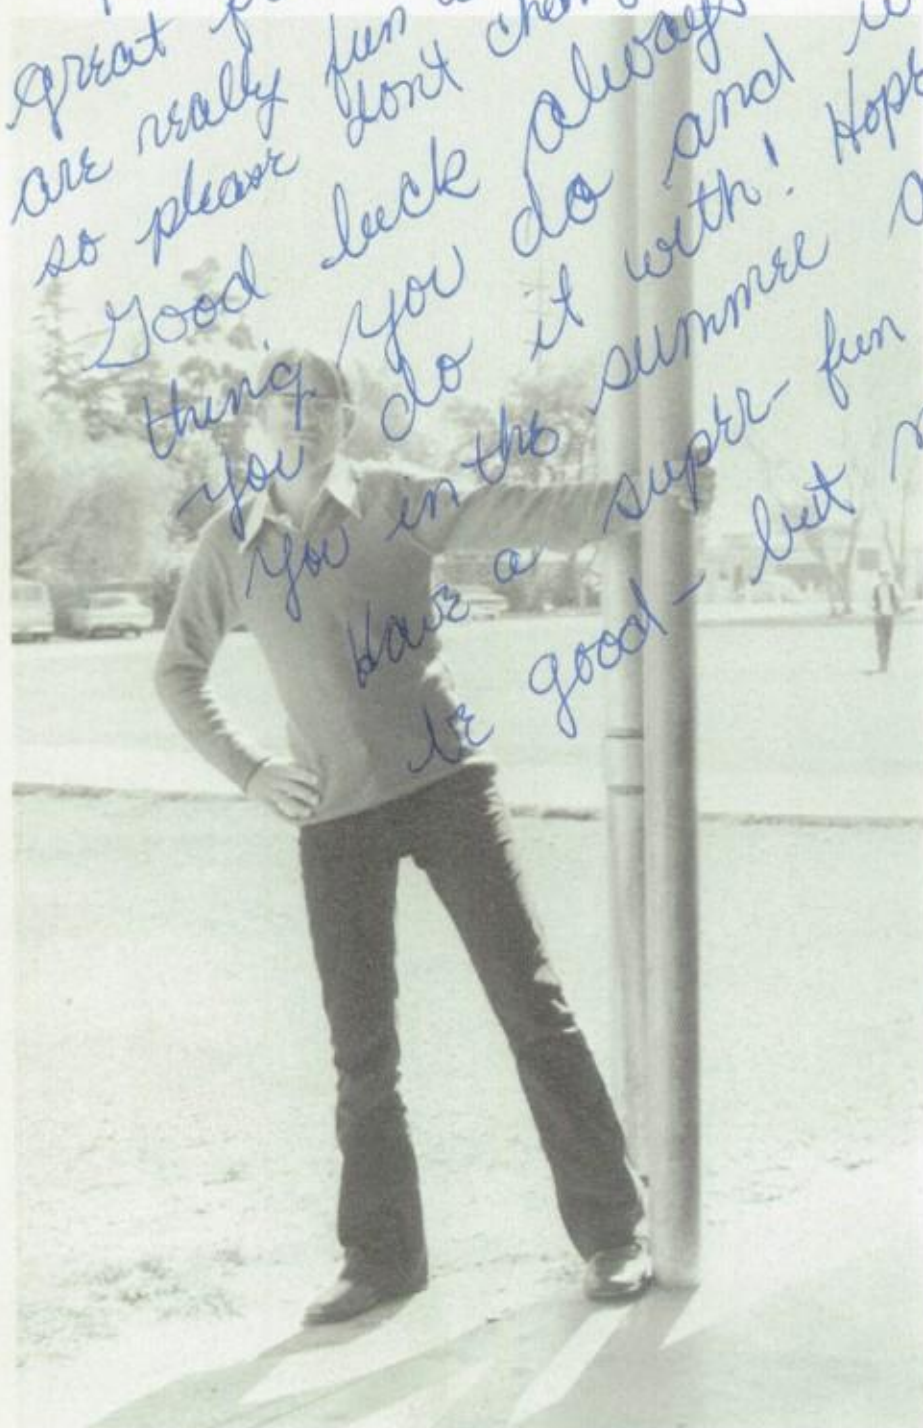

Members of GAA Basketball were: Cecilia Condo, Cheri Leinas, Paula Wallace, Miss Braden, (Coach), Barbara Brady, Bev Emery, Cheryl Pastore, Mary Pastore, and Robbin Kawabata.

I like very much this country, this city, this school. It's wonderful to live with other people, to know others' countries, other kinds of life. The people here are very friendly and this helps me very much. About the school, I want to say you students make it great. I hope you have the chance to live in another country and see how fantastic it is. I'm very glad to Mrs. Canine for taking me in her home for these wonderful five months.

I have had, here in the U.S. and particularly at San Lorenzo High School, a memorable experience.

I am thankful to the teachers who taught their subjects well and who were always willing to help.

Many thanks to the students for the friendship and love they gave me.

When I return to Brazil, I'll miss each and every one of you. I hope I can see you again someday to repay in kindness what I have won.

Daisy-poo-to a real great friend. You are really fun to know
so please don't change too much.
Good luck always in everything you do and wherever you go in the summer! Hope to see you have a super-fun summer and it's good - but not too good.
Love and kisses,
Lately

FROM AFAR

Living here as an exchange student, is such an experience for me. The best way to know one people is to participate as much as possible in their life: at school, in the society, in the family.

And the more I live here and participate in this life, the more I understand and like this people.

My classmates do the best to help me with the language, and so do the teachers.

I really didn't expect this big friendship I found here.

To all the people who made me feel as if I were in my country, I thank very much. It's something I'll never forget.

Youth for Understanding

A smiling country of cool guys and cute chicks...

A far-out school with smiling faces all around me...

The Jim, Jo, Jimbo, Chris, Melinda, Mark, and John Denning family.

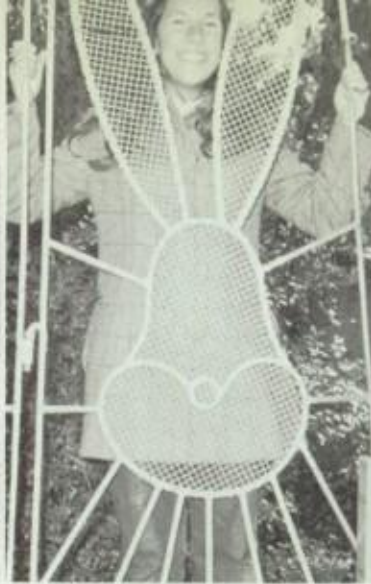

Plus Bogie the dog and Matilda the cat—all who welcomed me before I even knocked at their door...

Such a wonderful year no teen-ager should live without...

It's a small world ... Peace, brothers.

Keep smiling!!!

CONFEDERATE STAFF

...worked hard this year trying to come up with a book that would be the most interesting ever. In spite of the many hours of hard work, the Confederate Staff found time for fun and friendship.

One question that plagued us all was, "Where did the time go?"

Dave,

Well, I'm very glad that I had you in science it was terrific! knowing you can make a day seem brighter! I hope we can have a class next year together. Dave, I hope you have beautiful people (girls) and have beautiful days forever. Don't change, because your too much already! During the go out and have a party on me! Don't mess around too much or it will get up in trouble! Your a beautiful person so have a happy day! Peace & → Luv ya,

September brought the class of 1974 into its new school with a new type of Freshman Day and Dance... Live music broke up the boredom of the introductions' assembly... Yell leaders and song girls served a barbecue lunch to the new Rebs... Anyone for a swim?... Perhaps an old silent movie?... The Hello Dance gave opportunities for both.

Down South, Charlie Manson went on trial... Did he have the power?

Who was The Backdoor? Creedence! They were still creating their great sounds.

Midi vs. Mini was on campus... Which was the better? SLz guys gave the verdict Minis!!

Changes came to SLz in October. One was the passing of Pam Kurrels' crown to the new Miss Southern Belle... Aldina Ramos.

The Varsity football team raged on and on...

The New Hope Singers and Richard King paid a visit... The judgment is left up to you.

We focused on many groups, including Chicago; Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young, and Santana.

The music world also suffered the loss of two of its greats... Janis Joplin and Jimi Hendrix.

The Closed Campus Campaign changed total apathy to an all-out fight for open campus... Good work, everybody!!!

November brought an end to the greatest football season ever... We were Co-Champions!!! Coach Dore's poem, "Happiness is..." brought a standing ovation at the Fall Awards Banquet.

Seniors had the time of their lives while taking the SAT and ACT tests. Cheat sheets didn't even work!

Reagan will serve as governor for another four years, while Tunney who had government students working for him, will go to the Senate.

Students took a look at Calvin Coolidge High... compliments of the production of "Up the Down Staircase."

During December, nostalgia worked its way into our lives... with high laced boots, overalls and Santa Claus... played by John Gullak... tromping through the halls.

Good old-fashioned tear-jerkers were revived... If you cried while reading LOVE STORY, rivers would be created while watching the movie. Ryan O'Neal and Ali MacGraw played the 1971 Romeo and Juliet.

Bay Area sports fans rejoiced over the championships won by the 49ers and the Raiders.

Sophomores sold candles for Christmas... Beware of cute little pixies.

Students welcomed the two glorious weeks of vacation, but all too soon, back to the old grind.

ANOTHER YEAR

TO REMEMBER

Stanford rang in the New Year loudly by beating Ohio State in the Rose Bowl . . . Ex-Rebel football coach, John Ralston, led the Indians on to victory.

Seniors and Freshmen continued their year long "love affair" with Dr. Whitehead.

If you had a gripe to give to Executive Council, you had the opportunity to express yourself at the first general student body meeting.

The semester ended, and with it a record was set . . . 73 members of CSF . . . Good work!

Congress finally okayed the 18 year old vote . . . Don't all you 18 year-olds feel old?

Rebel basketball players were hot on Hayward's trail.

Ecology was emphasized this year, first with the founding of E.A.C. . . . then with the all-out effort of some students to clean up the S.F. Bay oil spillage.

In February, astronauts Shepard and Mitchell were the 5th and 6th men to walk on the moon, while Roosa manned the space craft of Apollo 14.

Triggs, Anaya, and Kawabata were the big names in SLz's wrestling, and the basketball players came in second in the HAAI They even beat Hayward!!!!

The class of '73 won the over-all spirit trophy for this year's all new spirit competition, with the Seniors coming in a close second by winning the trophies for best skit, patio decorations, game decorations, and the best use of theme.

Anyone for T.P.ing? . . . That was the favorite past-time of many fiendish souls, who loved to see people go crazy trying to find out "who dunnit!!"

L.A. was shaken by an earthquake . . . Was this the year that California would sink?

March activities began with the musical, "The Sound of Music" . . . one of the best presented at SLz.

Honored seniors went on sale as senior servants for 1971 . . . Records were broken by this year's set of bidders . . . Gary Ruff went for $59 . . . That record was broken within minutes by the buyer of Aldina Ramos, who paid $86 for her . . . Have you ever walked into the cafeteria and had a pie thrown in your face? If you have you must have walked in on the servants food fight.

Ali lost to Frazier . . . A victory for who? . . . Oh, I mean "whom," Dr. Whitehead.

In the rest of the world, Charles Manson & Company were found guilty and sentenced.

Simon and Garfunkel's "Bridge Over Troubled Water" took all the honors this year . . . Along with recognition for James Taylor and Elton John.

The Junior class put on "A Time for Us" . . . called the best Junior Prom ever!!!

Spring was heralded on Kite Day . . . a day given to the people to take advantage of the beautiful weather.

In April, the Sophomore class brought Paul Newman to SLz . . . "Cool Hand Luke" was the main feature of their film festival.

Astrology vs. Science was the theme of the first Computer Dance to be held. Who was your perfect match??

The baseball, swimming, golf and track teams continued to compete for the championships . . . All of the teams were doing well as this yearbook was completed.

The review of the Rebel year 1971 ends here . . . but before the year ended, many new and different things were introduced to all.

Remember the good old times.
